HOW TO CATCH A PEACOCK
You can't do it in the daytime, you know

IS IT 'APPROPRIATE PASSION?'

Mystery Peacock Linked To Vanishing Yule Gifts

That peacock that woke Mrs. Marjorie Joy Welland of 44 Madera Way, Mill Valley, might well be Appropriate Passion.

Robin Taylor of 105 Tomales Street, Sausalito, told the Independent-Journal today that his Christmas present from his wife, a pair of peafowl, escaped soon after Christmas.

They called the peacock Appropriate Passion and the peahen Delicious Desiring. "It's from Kismet, you know," Taylor said.

"I did not have a proper place to receive them," Taylor said in explaining the escape of the birds. Their wings were tied, but soon after they were untied, the birds got away.

Taylor said the bird that called on Mrs. Welland might and might not be Appropriate Passion. "We have a few feathers, and I suppose we could try to match them up," he said.

He said peacocks can be captured by "shining a torch in their eyes at night."

What about daytime peacock catching?

"Oh, you can't catch them then," he said.

Anyway, if someone does catch a peacock, Taylor would like a call.

Bus Driver 'Is Taken For Ride'

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Bus riders in Belvedere never saw the 9:15 a.m. bus Monday.

Said Brun Leibes, employee at the Mill Valley Greyhound Depot, "People from Belvedere were screaming bloody murder."

Monday was the morning driver Emmett F. McGoskey was initiated by Tamalpais High School students on the run from Bolinas, Stinson and Muir beaches to the school. This is his story:

"It was my first time on the run and I was told that the first girl would show me the route and where to pick up the kids. I knew how to get to Bolinas. Coming out of Bolinas, the kids said; 'Turn left here.'

"When I got around Point Reyes they all started laughing. 'You're going the wrong way,' they said. I didn't know whether to believe them or not.

"Then we came back to Bolinas and they said, 'Turn left, there's a girl here.' We got up on a mountain and there was no place to turn around and no place to go.

"Coming out of Stinson Beach they said to take a left here. There was a sign that said 'Mount Tamalpais, four miles.'

"We went up to the air base so I wound up in the restricted area. They said, 'We have had our fun' and they led me down again. I said, 'Please, I have

Moscow Students Rampage Again In Front Of Embassy

Do Battle With Own Police

MOSCOW (UPI) — A mob of 2,000 students denouncing President Johnson as a "murderer" broke through massed lines of unarmed police and soldiers today and attacked the U.S. Embassy. They were driven back in hand-to-hand fighting which raged for hours.

It was the most violent anti-American demonstration witnessed in Moscow in more than a decade. As the battle wore on it became clear the fury of the mob was directed as much against police and soldiers as it was against the United States.

TURN ON POLICE

Russians and Asians—including Chinese Communists singing the "Internationale" — screamed "Stop protecting the Americans" and "You are worse than the imperialists." They also screamed anti-American slogans and accused Johnson of murdering North Vietnamese.

Fistfights swirled through the snow and slush in front of the 10-story embassy. Russian mounted police charged their horses repeatedly into the mob and a number of students, police and soldiers were seen bleeding profusely from cuts.

LBJ DEMANDS AID

President Johnson had denounced a lack of police protection during a Feb. 9 attack on the embassy as an "outrage." Soviet authorities, apparently stung by the criticism, had arranged elaborate precautions today, including steel barricades and lines of snow plows.

But the precautions were not enough. The students, fired up by reports in the Soviet press of American bombing attacks on North Viet Nam, first attacked police and then swarmed over the barriers to the embassy itself.

The embassy had been fore-

Councilmen Beat Bushes Over Trees

By RICHARD LYTTLE

A tree is a tree, said the mayor of Larkspur.

But a former mayor did not think it so simple as that.

The dispute arose last night in Larkspur City Council discussion of a proposed tree ordinance.

Former Mayor Lesly A. Daveler, attending as an interested citizen, noted that the five-page document nowhere defined a tree. "How the dickens can you have an ordinance until you know what you're talking about?" he asked.

"A tree is a tree, Les," said Mayor Neil R. Brixon.

"I think everyone knows what a tree is," Councilman Earl J. O'Grady said.

But Jack Fowler of 34 Laurel Avenue agreed with Daveler. "Is Scotch broom a tree?" he asked. Fowler suggested some minimum diameter or height which would qualify a plant as a tree.

City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper said this kind of definition would not work because the ordinance would ban the planting of some trees such as eucalyptus, black walnut, palm and poplar in public rights of way.

"If you said a tree was something that was an inch or more in diameter at the trunk, there would be no way of banning planting of saplings because they would be too small at the time to qualify as trees," said Piper.

Councilmen Vaughan M. Marker declared that it would be impossible to get 7,000 citizens to agree on the definition of a tree.

"This document is cumbersome enough," Marker said. "I can't see why we are beating it to death."

"A tree is going to be pretty much a tree," Brixon reiterated.

Nevertheless, councilmen delayed action on the ordinance until April 7, not necessarily

3 A.M. Blaze Destroys Boat; $40,000 Value

A 60-foot boat under construction off North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, was destroyed by fire early today with loss estimated at $40,000.

The owner, Marvin Wallace of 162 Almonte Boulevard, Almonte, said the boat was about two-thirds complete.

Marin County Fire Department, who dealt with the blaze at 3:12 a.m. had difficulty in tracing the owner.

Four trucks, under County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, were called out, but it was too late to save the craft and its construction cradle. The cause of the fire was still being investigated this afternoon.

The boat was being built on property of Carl Schiller of 102 F Street, San Rafael, firemen said.

The building site out in the open and nothing else in the area was damaged.

Innocent Plea Entered In Eagle Killing Case

Leroy Martinelli, 36, Point Reyes Station sheep rancher, pleaded innocent today to a charge of illegally killing two eagles on his ranch Jan. 26 and 27.

Martinelli appeared with his attorney, A. E. Bagshaw of San Rafael, before Judge Oliver J. Carter in U.S. District Court in San Francisco.

Bagshaw asked for a jury trial. Judge Carter granted this request and set trial for April 26.

However, Asst. U. S. Atty. Jerrold Ladar said he would protest trial by jury and file a brief March 10.

Judge Carter set arguments on the jury question for March 30.

Martinelli allegedly shot a golden eagle and a bald eagle after they killed seven of his lambs. A third eagle, he says, has since killed two more lambs.

Johnson's Visit To Soviet Faces Indefinite Delay

LONDON (UPI) — Communist diplomats said today the increasing conflict over Viet Nam has ruled out a visit by President Lyndon B. Johnson to Moscow at this time.

While the "invitation in principle" to the President to visit Russia is not being withdrawn, the Kremlin leaders feel the presence of the U.S. President in Moscow would not now be a good idea.

Washington reports said the U.S. position is still the same; Johnson would like to visit Russia and would like Soviet leaders to visit the United States but that the question of a time had not yet come up.

'Red' Planes Turn Out To Be Navy

COMBINED AP & UPI

A report by the Vietnamese air force yesterday that three unidentified planes apparently tried to intercept Vietnamese bombers returning from Tuesday's raid proved to be a case of mistaken identity.

The Vietnamese air force commander, Brig. Gen Nguyen Cao Ky, said the three aircraft were U.S. Navy planes returning from a mission. No communist air activity has been reported during any of the raids on North Viet Nam.

Meanwhile, U. S. forces pressed a search today for an American pilot missing since his jet fighter-bomber was shot down during the Tuesday raid on Quang Khe.

The pilot, 1st Lt. Hayden J. Lockhart, of Springfield, Ohio, was flying an F 100.

Lockhart's father, Hayden J. Lockhart Sr., said the Air Force had informed him search parties had found his son's parachute and helmet.

Gas Pipeline Explodes, Killing 17 In Louisiana

NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP) —A natural gas pipeline exploded in a residential area near here early today. Seventeen persons, including 10 children, were killed.

Authorities said two or three other children were unaccounted for. At least nine persons were taken to a hospital, but their injuries were not believed serious.

A deputy sheriff said the dead and injured were residents of the neighborhood, just across Louisiana Highway 1 from the country club.

The blast, occurring 150 yards behind a row of frame houses, created a crater 15 feet deep, 75 feet long and 30 feet wide. Flames from escaping gas soared upward 400 feet or more before Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. workmen managed to stop the flow.

State police estimated damage from the blast and accompanying fireball at over a million dollars.

Five houses were leveled, with furnishings scattered over 15 to 20 acres. Six cars and three trucks were destroyed. A nearby sawmill was damaged.

Rescue workers, moving into the area after the flow of gas was stopped, found the body of Mrs. William E. Ammons, about 25, in a ditch across the highway and about 60 feet from her house. Her baby daughter's body was lying in the road about 50 feet from the house.

Her husband and three other children escaped with minor burns.

The same line blew up in the spring of 1954, with no casualties.

Ocean Storm May Bring Rain

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — There was a chance that a weak storm at sea would cause occasional rain this afternoon and tonight along the coastal areas of Northern and Central California.

The Weather Bureau said the rain was likely to spread inland over much of the northern half of the state in late afternoon.

The storm was charted 300 miles west of San Francisco this morning and was moving slowly toward the southeast. It is expected to be off Santa Maria tomorrow morning.

Daytime temperatures will drop a bit, the forecaster said.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Sports Figure Charged In Robbery

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Tom Falkenburg, a familiar Mississippi sports figure and brother of television personality Jinx Falkenburg, was arrested on a golf course yesterday on bank robbery charges.

Falkenburg

The FBI accused the 6-foot, 3-inch athlete of affecting a lisp and a limp, pulling a ski mask over his head, and taking $4,080 at gunpoint from the bank of Ridgeland, 12 miles from here, on Feb. 25.

Hinds County authorities said they would add state armed robbery charges to the federal bank statute charges. Falkenburg appeared before U.S. Commissioner John Countiss last night and bond was set at $5,000 on the federal charge.

Agents arrested Falkenburg, 41, at the Shady Oaks Country Club where he had played nine holes of golf in a practice round for a local golf tournament today.

Son Booked In Mother's Murder

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police have arrested the son of a 58-year-old San Francisco woman found beaten and stabbed to death in her apartment yesterday.

Couch

The son, William James Couch, 39, first barred police from entering the apartment where they found the pajama-clad body of Mrs. Irene Couch in a bathtub.

Mrs. Couch's employer, a drug store owner, called police when she failed to report to work the third day in a row.

Police said that they talked the son into letting them in. He was booked on suspicion of murder. Officers said a motive was not immediately determined.

Officers said Couch, who was unemployed, had shared the Van Ness Avenue apartment with his mother since January, 1962.

Third Muslim Picked Up In Slaying

NEW YORK (AP)—The Black Muslims have denied anew any guilt for the murder of Malcolm X in the wake of the arrest here of a third Negro accused of the assassination.

Johnson

But police said the latest defendant, Thomas 15X Johnson, 30, of the Bronx, is a strong-arm member of the Black Muslims. He was charged yesterday with homicide.

Johnson is the second Black Muslim to be accused in the assassination of Malcolm X, 39, the black nationalist leader who bolted from the Black Muslims last year and formed his own sect.

Johnson had been indicted last month for first-degree assault in the wounding last Jan. 6 of Benjamin Brown, a Black Muslim defector. Also charged in that case was Norman 3X Butler, 26, described by police as a Black Muslim "enforcer" and the second man accused in the slaying of Malcolm X.

Police believe five men in all took part in the attack on Malcolm X.

House Approves Appalachia Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's top-priority Appalachia aid bill has cleared Congress and is ready for President Johnson's signature.

The House approved the $1.1-billion measure yesterday by a vote of 257 to 165 after 16 attempts by Republicans to amend it were defeated by top-heavy counts and a GOP substitute was rejected 323 to 100. The Senate passed the bill last month.

The President was expected to lose no time approving the bill, one of the major items in his "Great Society" legislative program and the first to be passed.

Subject to later appropriations, the bill would authorize federal funds for programs intended to bolster the sagging economy of 360 counties in 11 states of the Appalachian area. These states are Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia. The door was left open for adding 13 New York counties later.

Most of the money, $840 million, would be spent during the next five years to build 3,350 miles of highways and access roads, with the government paying up to 70 per cent of the cost.

Another $252.2 million of government money would be used during the next two years to build health facilities, improve farm and timber lands, restore mining areas, develop water resources and boost federal funds available under existing programs. Local contributions of from 20 to 30 per cent would be required for the non-highway programs.

Administration of the program would be by a commission composed of the governor or a representative of each of the 11 states and a member named by the President and having in effect a veto over any commission decisions. No project could be undertaken in any state without the approval of the state.

CHURCHILL TOWN BANS TOURIST JUNK

BLADON, England (AP)—The town fathers have banned hot-dog stands, juke boxes, tea rooms and other tourist services in this community where Sir Winston Churchill is buried.

Churchill was buried in January and since then more than a quarter-million people have come to visit his grave in the tiny churchyard.

"We must prevent people from doing to Sir Winston what Stratford-on-Avon has done to Shakespeare. We know what a nauseating place that is," said Councillor Charles French, a factory worker, who proposed a resolution approved last night. "We do not want tea rooms, or chromium-plated juke boxes."

Peking Calls For Junking K's Policies

TOKYO (AP) — Peking told Moscow today to junk all of Nikita Khrushchev's policies if it wants to restore unity to the Communist world.

"N. S. Khrushchev has vanished from the political arena, but Khrushchevism is not dead and buried," said the official Peking People's Daily. "A glance at the propaganda in the Soviet press these days makes this abundantly clear."

The Moscow-Peking dispute "will never end as long as there are still those who believe in Khrushchev revisionism, who follow it and disseminate it, until the day when it is swept clean away," said the paper.

"Khrushchev was the founder of Khrushchev revisionism," the Chinese party organ said. "When this revisionist line took shape he had dug his own grave. One must ask, if the whole business of Khrushchev revisionism is to be continued, then why oust Khrushchev? Could the continuers really be more able than the founder? Can those who follow in his footsteps reach their destination along the same road that led him up against a stone wall? Can those who believe in Khrushchev revisionism escape the sad end of Khrushchev himself unless they change their ways?"

In Moscow, sources said the conference of 19 Communist parties — originally expected to end today may be prolonged until Friday or Saturday by a dispute over what to say publicly about the Red Chinese challenge to Soviet policies.

War Games Attack

CAMP PENDLETON (AP) — The army of Merlin, a mythical nation, launched a major offensive yesterday against the Marine expeditionary brigade called in to aid the neighboring nation of Lancelot in Exercise Silver Lance. Merlin naval forces also stepped up their attacks against U. S. ships off Camp Pendleton as both sides prepared for the big battle of the amphibious maneuvers.

Re-Enlistment Drops Hurting Armed Forces

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite two military pay raises in as many years, the armed services are losing trained officers and enlisted men at a serious pace.

An Associated Press survey showed today that the services regard still inadequate pay, poor housing, prolonged separation from families and eroded fringe benefits as major factors.

The inability to hold onto trained men complicates an already difficult military manpower problem. Recruiting has been dropping because of speculation that the draft may be eliminated — something which is now considered unlikely.

The Army reported that more than three out of four junior reserve officers are leaving service after completing their obligated duty. It said about the same 75 per cent of first-term enlisted men are declining to sign up for a second hitch.

The Navy said that "last year we lost over 70,000 first-enlistment men who met the standards for re-enlistment," more than 12,000 of them electronics specialists.

The Air Force said "our most critical retention problem exists in areas where the skills are in the greatest demand by industry."

Over-all, the first-term re-enlistment rate of airmen dropped about 6 per cent in two years to a level of only 29.5 per cent in fiscal 1964.

Air Force officer retention also was about 7 per cent below what the Air Force said is needed.

The Marine Corps reported that the first-term re-enlistment rate has declined over the past three years and is still going down.

Egypt Says Israel Guided German Sabotage Scheme

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI)—A Cairo newspaper said today the United Arab Republic smashed a spy ring directed by Israel which plotted to kill West German rocket scientists working for Egypt.

"Israel found in some German nationals a convenient cover for carrying out her terrorist operation," the newspaper Al Ahram said.

The newspaper said most of the persons arrested last Saturday as members of the ring were West Germans. The U.A.R. has confirmed only four arrests so far but the West German embassy here said on Saturday that at least seven of its nationals have been arrested.

The newspaper said one of the "most outstanding members of the ring" was West German Wolfgang Lotz. It said he confessed yesterday to sending a booby-trapped package to Dr. Wolfgang Piltz, director of the Egyptian rocket program.

Pilz's German secretary lost her sight when she opened the package and it exploded in her face, Al Ahram said.

Red China Blast?

LONDON (UPI) — British Defense Minister Denis Healy said yesterday Communist China may explode its second nuclear device "in the next few days." Healy made the statement during a House of Commons debate on the British defense budget.

Senator Again Tries Foreign Aid Revision

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright asked Congress today to make major changes in the Johnson administration's "single package" $3.38-billion foreign aid bill.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called for a separation of military and economic assistance, greater selectivity in countries and projects to be aided, long-range authorizations and a heavy shift from direct U.S. development loans to multilateral lending by international institutions.

In a speech prepared for Senate delivery, Fulbright recalled serving notice on the administration last October he would refuse to lead the fight in the Senate again for an omnibus measure lumping all direct foreign aid into one omnibus bill.

The administration, after a declaration by Rep. Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, that he was "unalterably opposed" to separating the legislation, sent up an omnibus bill. The House unit is in the midst of hearings on it.

Fulbright said he has had "a notable lack of success" over the years in attempts to separate the programs.

"I had hoped that this year the administration might begin," the Arkansas Democrat said. "I still hope that Congress, on its own initiative, will begin the separation of military and economic ingredients of the package and will put substantially more of the development lending program under multilateral management."

Morse Says U.S. To Raid China's Bases

STANFORD (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., says that he believes American policy in Viet Nam is aimed at eventual bombing of Red China's nuclear installations.

"The war hawks think they may get China to slip into an overt act so they can bomb the nuclear installations of China — and then the big show is on," Morse told newsmen last night shortly before a speech at Stanford University.

Morse said that if the administration's Viet Nam policy continues "President Johnson will leave the White House as the most discredited President in American history."

The senator said that America could not win a war in Asia with its ground troops — "You can hold, but you cannot win."

He said that he knew of no reason to justify a belief "that if we kill enough and bomb enough, North Viet Nam and Red China will yield."

"You can't win a war in Red China by bombing from the air," he added.

Morse said in his speech to Stanford students that the only solution in Viet Nam lies in negotiation, with the United Nations acting as trustee.

U.S. Blustery Weather Is Tapering Off

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Blustery weather which has buffeted north-central areas this week appeared tapering off today as the snow belt stretched southward deep into the Mississippi Valley.

Heavy snow, with gusty winds, hit sections of Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Missouri, Southern Illinois and western Kentucky. Amuonts measured six inches in some areas and strong winds caused much drifting. Light snow continued in parts of South Dakota and Iowa and freezing drizzle fell on the heavy snow covering in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Cold air also spread from the northern Midwest into Southern areas, with freezing temperatures extending to San Antonio, Tex. Readings were in the teens and 20s in much of the Midwest snow belt, with lower marks in North Dakota.

In Minnesota, National Guardsmen were sent into the St. Cloud area by Gov. Karl Rolvaag to help clear streets and highways of snow which piled up to more than 2½ feet since the storm struck Monday.

Flood waters in southwestern sections of Minnesota appeared receding.

Iowa, one of the states along with Minnesota hardest hit by the blizzards, just about ended snow removal operations but ice-choked rivers posed threats of floods in some areas.

In other parts of the country, more rain and showers dampened wide sections of the Southeast and considerable fog blanketed areas from western Pennsylvania to southern Minnesota.

HEART PIERCED — William C. Sharp, an Atlanta, Ga., businessman, is recuperating in a hospital from a recent freak accident which almost cost him his life. Sharp, preparing to do some yard work, tripped over a two and one-half foot high fence. In attempting to break the fall he inadvertently opened a pair of shears and fell on them. Open heart surgery and blood transfusions saved him. (AP Wirephoto)

'LIFE IS NORMAL'

Mrs. Khrushchev Takes In Opera At Kremlin Alone

MOSCOW (UPI)—Mrs. Nikita S. Khrushchev says she and her husband are leading "a normal, healthy life like other people."

The former Soviet first lady, known to Russians as Nina Petrovna, earlier this week made her first appearance inside the Kremlin since her husband was ousted from power last October.

She showed up at the "Palace of Congresses," the new, modernistic building inside the Kremlin, to hear the opera "Prince Igor." Khrushchev, a devoted opera lover, was not with her.

Accompanied by a woman friend, Mrs. Khrushchev sat in the orchestra through the first two acts, hardly noticed by the audience of 5,000 in the vast theater.

But a member of the audience said someone asked her how things were going.

"We are now living a normal, healthy life like other people," Mrs. Khrushchev replied.

At the end of the second act she left the theater and entered a chauffeur-driven limousine, presumably to return to the Khrushchev country home.

Informed sources said the Khrushchevs recently acquired two new homes and moved out of a luxurious government villa near the village of Usovo.

They said the former premier and his wife moved to an equally well-appointed villa in another part of the Moscow provincial district and have taken up residence in a five room apartment at 19 Starokoniushseny (Old Stables Street), next door to the Canadian embassy.

Residents of the street have reported that the Khrushchevs, assisted by their son-in-law, moved their furniture into the apartment about three weeks ago. The son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, lost his job as editor of the government newspaper Izvestia soon after Khrushchev fell from power.

TWO LOST BOYS

Little Cowboys Set Off Novato 'Posse'

Novato firemen made a two-hour search and called for a helicopter yesterday because two "cowboys" went for a walk.

The "cowboys" were Michael Lee Smith and Robin Keith Berry, both three years old. They wandered away from the neighborhood of their Pleasant Valley homes about 10:30 a.m., wearing toy guns and cowboy hats.

When neither boy appeared at noon for lunch, the mothers became worried. Michael's mother, Mrs. Sonja Adrian Berry of 21 Stasia Drive, went searching.

Other neighbors joined the search, along with police.

About 12:30 p.m., Patrolman Walter W. Weidauer found Robin on a hill behind Stasia Drive. But all he could say was that Michael had "gone the other way."

As the search for the second boy spread without result, Police Chief Robert Di Grazia asked American Helicopters Corp. at 8141 Redwood Highway for use of a copter.

But just before the whirlybird was to go aloft, piloted by Patrolman Robert Fetter, another policeman followed a hunch successfully.

Sgt. Glenn F. Wright went to the last house in a subdivision being constructed on the slope of Little Mountain above Pleasant Valley. There, at 2:30 p.m., he found Michael — quite content, but lost

Who'll Bear Cost Of New Sea Lion?

Should a city pay the bill to recast a disintegrating stone sea lion?

The question, before the Sausalito Planning Commission last night, was tabled until commissioner George C. Hoffman can get cost estimates from sculptor Al Sebrian of Muir Beach.

The commission was split "about half and half" as to whether the city should pay, reported Robert L. Nissen, chairman.

Sculptor Mary Tilden Strebeigh of Sausalito has asked for city support, saying the hollow-cast statue in the bay off Bridgeway near Tiffany Park is "breaking up."

She estimated cost at $1,000, but the commission was told last night the cost for bronze, which she recommended, may be $2,400 to $3,000.

The sculpture, done by Sebrian, was purchased with contributions from Sausalito citizens and placed in its offshore location in 1958.

Commissioners approved landscape plans for Vina del Mar subdivision, a seven-lot development at the end of George Lane.

Harvey E. Bragdon, Mill Valley city planning director, outlined that city's proposed East Mill Valley general plan, saying that removal of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad line in Mill Valley is a long-range plan.

The commission recommended against amending an ordinance to permit sale of sand and gravel by United Sand and Gravel Co. on A. G. Schoonmaker Co. property.

Discussion Planned On Home Care Idea

Babcock Foundation trustees will meet with Marin Hospital District directors at 9:30 a.m. Saturday to discuss setting up a home care program.

The two groups will hear Dr. Dean Clark, research professor and hospital and medical care administrator of the graduate school of public health of University of Pittsburgh, discuss how such a program may be started in a county the size of Marin, using facilities of Marin General Hospital.

to consider a definition, but because many interested groups had not yet seen this, the latest of many drafts of a tree ordinance.

The ordinance would allow removal of a tree under these conditions:

First there would have to be a written complaint that the tree constituted a hazard. Next the city manager would have to concur that a hazard existed. Next a hearing would be held by the Larkspur Park and Recreation Commission.

Notices of the hearing would have to be mailed to all residents within 300 feet of the tree and a notice posted on the tree itself.

The commission decision on removal of a tree could be appealed to the city council.

Two Marin Girls Still Missing

Two girls were reported still missing today by sheriff's officers.

Mrs. Mary Alice Denham, 103 Drake Avenue, Marin City, told deputies her daughter, Shirley Ann, 15, left home Saturday to visit relatives in San Francisco and failed to return.

Officers said she has run away before.

Mrs. Violet Mae Walsworth of 230 Perry Street, Tamalpais Valley, reported her daughter, Honey, 17, apparently packed two suitcases of clothes and left home Tuesday. Her whereabouts was also still unknown today, deputies said.

small portable radios that can send out a homing beam for rescue aircraft.

A bomb dropped by a fleeing terroist exploded in downtown Saigon today, killing four children and wounding a dozen adults. It was the first terrorist bombing in more than a month.

The injured included two American servicemen who received "minor scratches."

On the political front today, the government rejected as "nonsense" Communist demands that the United States pull its troops out of South Viet Nam.

An authorized South Vietnamese spokesman replied, "Why don't the Communists request the withdrawal of the Viet Cong first?"

Communist China said today that the United States has demanded that North Viet Nam hand over territory south of the 19th Parallel. The 1954 Geneva conference divided Viet Nam at the 17th Parallel.

"The Johnson administration," said Peking, "has gone so far as to ask the DRV to fall back and hand over a vast territory south of the 19th Parallel as a sacrifice to the former's war blackmail."

A State Department spokesman in Washington denied the United States had made any such demand.

In Saigon, the Vietnamese armed forces suffered their heaviest casualties yet against the Viet Cong during February, U. S. military officials reported today.

The total of 4,140 missing, wounded or dead with the previous high of 4,050 in December, 1964.

The roll of American combat dead for February totaled 43, also above the monthly average.

Alto Firemen Clarify View On City Idea

Alto volunteer firemen, who went on record Jan. 29 pledging complete cooperation with proponents of the City of Alto, today announced they do not back any plan for annexation to Tiburon or any other city.

"Our only interests lie in the right of self-determination for Alto residents," said Harry Cordall, spokesman for the volunteers.

Cordall said the stand of Alto Volunteer Firemen Inc. is being sent to the cities of Mill Valley and Tiburon, the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission and interested people.

"The petition that we are now waiting to come before the commission," he continued, "is not whether we can incorporate the City of Alto but it is a petition to have the right to vote if we want a city or not. This is the only petition or plan that the volunteers endorse."

Six File For School Posts

Six persons, including three incumbents, filed as school board candidates for the April 20 election between noon yesterday and today, as the filing deadline approached.

The deadline is at 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Incumbents filing at the county schools office were Robert G. Oliver of 56 Circle Road, San Rafael, of the Marin Junior College District board; William B. Lewis, 1623 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, for the Tamalpais High School District board, and John R. B. Ellis of 225 Evergreen Drive, Kentfield, for the Kentfield School District board.

Newcomers filing were Mrs. Megan M. Mery of Mesa Way, Inverness, and Joseph F. Joyce, construction foreman of Point Reyes, for the West Marin School District board, and William M. Scott of Box 229, Forest Knolls, a sales engineer, for the Lagunitas School District board.

Grape Bazaar Will Move To Fairfax

The annual Grape Festival next fall will be held at Marin Town and Country Club in Fairfax, it was announced today by Mrs. Willis Clark Jr., president of the Sunny Hills Guild governing council.

The festival, sponsored by the guild to raise funds for Sunny Hills orphanage, has traditionally been held on Sunny Hills property. But that site has been sold for a shopping center development.

Mrs. Ernest T. Guy, one of the 15 governing council members, was named as Grape Festival chairman.

She said new features to be added would include "chuck wagon coffee," charcoal broiled hambergers and "many new products." There will be ample free parking space at the Town and Country Club, she said.

Mrs. Guy, a Mill Valley resident, has lived in Marin County for five years. Her husband is professor of anesthesiology at University of California Medical Center in San Francisco.

15-Year-Old Girl Tries To Take Life

A 15-year-old girl, sent from Juvenile Hall to Ross General Hospital in January for psychiatric treatment, yesterday was talked out of a second suicide attempt while perched high atop the hospital's roof.

David Fogel, hall superintendent, said the girl had slashed her wrists at the hospital yesterday afternoon. About 6:30 p.m., he said, she apparently removed stitches from the wounds. Then she climbed to the roof.

She perched on the nearby 35-foot-high roof, her legs dangling over the edge, and threatened to jump. A doctor and nurse attempted to persuade her to come down. Fogel said he arrived about 8 p.m. and about 30 minutes later the girl climbed down.

She was taken to San Rafael General Hospital for re-treatment of the wrist cuts, then returned to Juvenile hall. Fogel said she was admitted to the hall last October as an "incorrigible."

Bermuda Palms Is Picketed

A picket line went up at 11:30 a.m. today in front of Bermuda Palms, 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael.

Ray Markt, business agent for Local 126 of the Bartenders and Culinary Workers Union, San Rafael, said that owner Irving Litchfield refused to sign a collective bargaining agreement with the union.

Markt said three pickets went into action after two weeks of negotiation broke down.

He said the dispute has nothing to do with a case now in appellate court over a ruling against Litchfield on withholding of health benefit pay.

another run to pull.'

"I manager to get around curves that I thought were impossible and wound up at some dam. It was Alpine Dam. I couldn't go back up that hill. There was some guy down there on the dam and I asked, 'Is it OK to come across?' He scratched his head and said 'How did you get down here?' I said, 'You wouldn't believe it.'

"We finally came out at Fairfax," said the driver. There, a policeman directed him toward Highway 101.

McGoskey, who lives at the Fireside Motel in Mill Valley, said he had just come to the San Francisco area, having driven two years in Los Angeles for Greyhound.

"Being a West Virginian, I thought we had bad curves. But these curves make ours look like a super highway," he said.

He reported about 24 pupils aboard Monday on the run which normally has about 30. Stops are Muir and Stinson Beach and Bolinas.

McGoskey was not on the run today.

Principal Robert H. Prather took a very dim view of the students' "joke."

"I wish there were some punishment in kind for these youngsters," he said.

The Greyhound bus makes the school run under contract with Tamalpais High School District.

One of the students said the bus reached the high school at 10:30 or 11 a.m.

McGoskey said, "I don't know when I arrived. I was so confused I didn't care."

warned of the demonstration and windows on the first three floors were boarded up with plywood. But the mob smashed the plywood coverings and used slingshots to break windows on the upper floor where American Embassy workers live in apartments.

The students, screaming and chanting abuse at Americans for the bombing attacks, hurled rocks, pieces of metal, ball bearings, ice and ink bottles. The American seal was defaced with splashes of red, black, green and purple ink.

Health Officer Reports Fifth Case Of Rabies

Marin County's fifth rabid skunk of the year was shot in Stinson Beach Feb. 24, Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer, disclosed today.

Mrs. Albrecht coupled her report with a plea that dog owners in Stinson Beach be sure to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies.

One dog which had contact with the skunk shot Feb. 24 had to be destroyed, Dr. Albrecht said, because it had not been vaccinated.

The skunk was seen and killed by Sheriff's Deputy George Miller on Calle del Pinos. Three dogs were seen with the skunk and one turned out to be unvaccinated, Dr. Albrecht said. The other two were re-vaccinated and will be kept under quarantine for a month.

Frantic Liz Taylor Sees Her Car Kill Irish Widow

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP)—"My God! My God! My God!" cried Elizabeth Taylor, jumping from her Rolls Royce and pillowing the dying Irish widow on a mink coat.

Sobbing hysterically, the film star rushed to aid Alice Ryan yesterday after her chauffeur-driven car struck the 76-year-old woman. A spokesman for Miss Taylor said Mrs. Ryan stepped into the path of the car.

The accident occurred as Miss Taylor and her French chauffeur, Gaston Sanz, were returning from the funeral in France of Sanz' 17-year-old son. He was killed at a shooting gallery under circumstances which have not been clarified.

"I saw Miss Taylor get out of the car," a bystander said. "She was staggering about in the roadway with her hands to her head, crying and sobbing.

"Then she walked to the dying woman, rolled her mink coat into a pillow and tried to comfort her while they waited for an ambulance."

Miss Taylor followed the ambulance to the hospital where Mrs. Ryan was pronounced dead.

Interstate Highway Program Still On Schedule, Half Completed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Construction on the world's greatest highway program yet conceived — the 41,000-mile U.S. interstate system — is past the halfway mark and just about on schedule.

The program was set up by Congress in 1956 and 1972 set as the target date for completion.

It will consist of 41,000 miles of high-speed highways to connect the nation's principal metropolitan areas, cities and industrial centers and to serve as a defense network of roads if needed.

The system generally is designed to take motorists whizzing along without worries about intersections, traffic lights and jammed city streets.

Today, a little more than eight years after the program was launched, 19,018 miles are open for traffic; construction is under way on another 5,196 miles, while engineering work or right-of-way acquisition is in progress for another 12,103.

The remaining 4,680 miles in the system are listed by the Bureau of Public Roads as in preliminary status or not started.

Thus, about 89 per cent of the system is open or under way.

Rugs should be turned annually.

Kathryn Grayson Sped To Hospital

SANTA MONICA (UPI)—Singer Kathryn Grayson, 42, who co-starred with the late Mario Lanza in "That Midnight Kiss" and "Toast of New Orleans," today remained in the intensive care unit of Santa Monica Hospital.

Police Wednesday night first reported that Miss Grayson took an overdose of pills, but a doctor said her drowsiness stemmed from a reaction to cough medicine she was taking for viral pneumonia.

The singer's stomach was pumped before she was placed in the intensive care unit, police said.

Six Seek Post On Larkspur Plans Group

The Larkspur City Council was delighted last night to discover that it will not have to beat the bushes to find a man to fill a vacancy on the citp planning commission.

Six have applied for the job since learning of the resignation of Andrew Gilardi who plans to move away from town.

"This is wonderful," Mayor Neil R. Brixon said. "Usually we have a hard time finding anyone." Neither he nor any other council member had an explanation for the increased interest.

The latter two applicants are residents of the Greenbrae portion of Larkspur.

Councilmen put off the appointment until April 7.

Two Clam Diggers Fined $25 Each

Two clam diggers were fined $25 each yesterday in North Marin Justice Court for taking more than the limit of 50 clams from Tomales Bay Feb. 26.

Julio Yagues of Albany, charged with taking 75 clams, and Manuel Muniz of Hayward, charged with taking 66 clams, also were ordered to surrender their fishing licenses for 90 days.

Schoolgirls Beat New York Officer

NEW YORK (AP) — A white policeman was beaten to his knees by screaming Negro schoolgirls when he tried to break up a gang fight outside a Brooklyn school.

Fifteen of the girls, using sticks, bottles and pipes, were arrested yesterday after the patrolman's partner came to his rescue and held them at bay with his revolver until reinforcements arrived.

About 55 girls, ranging in age from 13 to 15, were battling in the schoolyard as classes let out for the day. The students also came from another predominantly Negro school nearby.

Patrolman Peter J. Buccino, 23, said he tried to separate two of the girls and was driven to his knees by a group of 13 girls who hit him with sticks.

Teeners Terrorize Family Thought To Be 'Mixed'

NORTH HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Three youths accused of waging a campaign of terror against a family they believed was racially mixed had never even met the man they thought was a Negro, police say.

The 16-year-old boys, who called themselves the "Confederation of Connecticut Clansmen," were arrested last night in this New Haven suburb of 20,000.

Police quoted the head of the family as saying the boys "didn't know me face to face."

The family was not identified. Police said the husband is of Portuguese-Italian descent and his wife of French and English extraction. The couple has two young children.

During the past month, the family has received threatening telephone calls and one abusive letter, police said.

Monday night, a 22-caliber rifle was fired at the family's home, police said.

Police Lt. Walter Berniere said the boys are from "respected middle-income families."

The youths were charged with assault with intent to commit murder and were released under $5,000 bond each.

Police quoted Johnson, DePalma and Giaquinto as saying they "don't believe in mixed marriages."

Lightning Blamed In Plane Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in the history of American aviation, the government has listed lightning as the probable cause of an airliner crash.

The finding was announced yesterday in a report by the Civil Aeronautics Board on the crash of a Pan American World Airways plane near Elkton, Md., Dec. 8, 1963. Eighty-one persons were killed.

Lightning ignited the mixture of fuel and air in the No. 1 reserve fuel tank at the tip of the left wing of the Boeing 707-121, the board said.

LARKSPUR EYES ANNEX PROBLEMS

Ridgeline Boundary With Mill Valley Poses Police, Fire, Sewer Questions

What happens when two cities meet on or near a steep ridgeline?

Problems happen unless there is some pretty thoughtful planning,Larkspur City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper warned his city council last night. He was alerting councilmen to Mill Valley's proposed Northridge annexation which will come up to Larkspur's southern boundary.

If the common boundary should follow the crest of the ridge, there could be duplication of effort with both city police and fire departments having to climb their sides of the hill to provide service and protection.

On the other hand, if city territory goes over the ridge, it is pretty tough to lift sewage back over the hill to the city's system, Piper explained.

The Mill Valley annexation will be before the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission at the Civic Center at 8:45 a.m. March 11. Piper and some of the Larkspur council will be there, not to try to block Mill Valley, but to point out to commissioners some of the ridgeline hazards and the need for careful examination.

Piper said last night he had not yet given the boundaries of the annexation a careful study. He promised to do so prior to the commission meeting.

The Larkspur City Council Also:

1. Introduced an ordinance regulating licenses of vehicles for hire. The law, to be voted on by the council April 7, would set insurance standards and other qualifications and assure operation of service at least six hours a day, five days a week. It would not regulate rates.
2. Took no action on a letter from Howard Peek, 14 Lagoon Road, Belvedere, urging public acquisition of railroad right of way from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and dropping of the demand that the Puerto Suello tunnel be re-opened.
3. Turned down a request for funds from the Redwood Empire Assn., which plans a promotion campaign to invite tourists to the area and overcome any fears that winter floods have spoiled the northern counties for travel or recreation.
4. Commended the planning commission for its study of high-rise building regulations in other cities and agreed that Larkspur's present regulations should not be changed.
5. Added convalescent hospitals as a premitted use in an administrative and professional zone. This was promoted by the application for a 60-bed hospital in the Bon Air area that was granted by the planning comission provided the council approved.
6. Voted to encourage the state legislature to get the study of a second North Bay crossing underway.
7. Approved a driveway encroachment asked by George Gerhard to provide access to a biulding lot on Redwood Avenue.
8. Denied a $200 claim for flood damage by George Kohler of 233 West Baltimore Avenue, but agreed that the drainage should be improved to protect his home. The job, estimated at $2,500, will be budgeted in the next fiscal year.
9. Named Councilman Robert J. Smith to the Citizens Advisory Committee for the Development of Marin County.
10. Adjourned until April 7.

Car Runs Light, Kills Pedestrian

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police said a car hurtled through a red light early today into two elderly women and a child walking across the street, killing one of the women.

The victim was identified as Mrs. Lucille Lee, in her 60s, of San Francisco.

Seriously injured were Mrs. Sadie Bagley, 66, of San Francisco, who suffered a broken pelvis, right arm and right leg, and Gregory Tracy, 7, who lived at the same address as Mrs. Lee and suffered internal injuries.

Police arrested William A. Watson, 35, also of San Francisco, and booked him on charges of felony manslaughter, felony drunk driving, and driving with a suspended driver's license.

Steel Factions Hold First Talk In Two Months

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Basic steel negotiators of the United Steelworkers Union met today for the first time in two months to map plans for an expected resumption of contract talks next Monday.

David J. McDonald, USW president, told newsmen it was simply a brief, informal meeting. He had no other comment.

Following the meeting at USW headquarters, the union negotiators were to meet with their industry counterparts to lay the groundwork for resuming talks and to hear industry's arguments for an extension of the May 1 strike deadline.

Burglars Stop For Lunch

Burglars who broke into a home at 550 D Street, San Rafael, helped themselves to lunch before they left.

Nothing was stolen, Patricia Ann Evansco reported to San Jones yesterday, but after an earlier break-in she discovered that a small amount of cash had been taken.

Jones said entry was gained by climbing over a high sun porch and using an unlocked rear door. The officer advised Mrs. Evansco to install a strong lock.

Panel Against Electing Supervisors At Large

Electing county supervisors at large would be too expensive for the "little man" running for office and might invite bossism and control by special interests, a four-man radio panel agreed today.

The speakers also held that supervisors elected at large would be less likely to provide direct representation than those now elected by districts.

The discussion, on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board," was moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer. It will be rebroadcast from a recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

The panelists were County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, Supervisors Ernest N. Kettenhofen and Thomas T. Storer, and Joseph Forest, a director of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs.

A bill (AB 766), introduced by Assemblyman William T. Bagley of San Rafael at the request of last year's county board of supervisors, would allow each county to elect supervisors at large.

Each supervisor would still have to live within the district which he represented, but would be voted by everyone in the county. The law, if passed, would not make "at large" elections mandatory; each county would have the option of adopting it or retaining the present system.

Supervisor Kettenhofen pointed out that state and national representatives are elected by districts. He said the same philosophy should apply to county elections.

Both Kettenhofen and Storer warned that "at large" elections could bring special interests or political machines to back an incumbent, making it almost impossible for a challenger with meager funds to unseat him.

Storer estimated it would cost $30,000 for a candidate to put on an adequate campaign countywide.

Forest said the Marin Council for Civic Affairs is opposed to elections at large for two main reasons: They would be expensive for candidates, and direct representation could suffer.

"If someone in Novato has to call a supervisor in Mill Valley, he may not get the kind of representation he expects," said Forest.

Forest suggested a change in state law to allow a county seven supervisors instead of five. He presented a map showing seven districts, with each having a population of not less than 12 per cent of the entire county and not more than 16 per cent.

Kettenhofen and Storer suggested that eventually a chartered City and County of Marin may come into being.

Park Budget To Include $109,000 Capital Program

San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission last night directed Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota to include a $109,000 capital expenditures program in budget proposals for fiscal 1966.

Of this, $40,000 would be carried over from this year and used to purchase a 3.9-acre park site on Montecillo Road adjacent to Don Timoteo School in Terra Linda.

The $40,000 was budgeted this year for improvements to the Freitas Memorial Park in Terra Linda, but legal complications have held up transfer of the 60-acre park site to the city. It now appears the city will have to pay a small portion of the value of the Freitas park before it can be donated, Rodota said. The commission directed Rodota to include $15,000 in the budget for this purpose.

The commission's move means that development of Freitas Park would not take place until at least fiscal 1969, but members felt the park would still have considerable value in its natural state, Rodota said.

All suggested improvements are in the Terra Linda area. The commission wanted $7,000 set aside for engineering and design of the Monticello Road park and one at the end of De La Guerra Road, which should be purchased before July 1, Rodota said.

First phase construction at these two parks would include grading, landscaping, draining and paving. The commission wanted $25,000 set aside for this work at the De La Guerra Road park and $17,000 for first phase work at the Monticello Road site.

Rodota will present final budget proposals to the commission at a meeting next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the City Hall.

FIREMEN LITERALLY BAG TREE-SITTING CAT

A gray cat, on top of a tall Redwood tree since Sunday, was rescued yesterday by Tamalpais Fire Capt. Richard Oswald.

Mrs. F. H. Schanz of 720 Cabin Drive telephoned firemen at 10:05 a.m. about the cat. Firemen Robert Davison and John Duncan climbed the tree with spikes. Duncan got the cat three-fourths way down the 80-foot tree, it escaped and climbed back up.

The men returned to the station and Davison and Captain Oswald returned, Oswald with a laundry bag. By then the cat had jumped to another redwood. Oswald climbed the tree and bagged the cat.

No one knew its owner, said Davison.

Nation Backslides Slightly On Unemployment Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate increased slightly in February, mounting to 5 per cent, the Labor Department reported today.

January's rate had been 4.8 per cent, the lowest since October 1957. The February figure was even with that for December but down from the 5.4 per cent of February 1964.

The Labor Department said most of the increase in joblessness was among women.

Employment rose in line with seasonal expectations in February, the department said. Civilian employment increased 500,000 to 69.5 million.

The department said the increase in unemployment among women was not expected to change and that it accounted for the increase in the seasonally adjusted joblessness rate.

Total unemployment mounted by about 200,000 to 4.2 million, the department said.

Merger Talk On For Twin Cities

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

Merger of the twin cities of Corte Madera and Larkspur into a single city is up for discussion again, after lying dormant for about five years.

When it was considered in the late 1950s, Larkspur City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper estimated the two communities could save about $35,000 a year by becoming one city and cutting duplication of services and equipment.

Now the amount would be larger, he said on hearing the residents of the two cities are being polled informally on the question by the Larkspur, Corte Madera Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The junior chamber Saturday passed out 1,000 questionnaires about many phases of community life and needs throughout the two cities. Most will be picked up this Saturday, although some will be mailed in, so compilation of results may be delayed.

One question concerned whether residents would care to have the two cities merged.

That question was first formally broached in 1957, while the councils of the two cities were discussing combined staffs and equipment for police, fire and street maintenance.

The cities had tried sharing some equipment, but the arrangement had not worked out satisfactorily.

The merger idea struck a spark. Each council appointed two members to a joint committee to study the proposal. Then each city appointed its own citizen study committee.

A research firm headed by William R. Zion of Lafayette was hired to make a more formal study, for $2,500. Zion reported the merger would result in a 30-cent tax cut for corte Madera, but a three-cent increase for Larkspur.

Still, Larkspur showed more enthusiasm for the merger than its sister city. "It was the minor problems that stymied us," recalled Piper.

The final hitch came when councilmen from Corte Madera began to make projections on expected sales tax revenue from the Corte Madera Shopping Center, then under construction.

"The councilmen simply were not willing to share the expected $100,000 extra revenue with residents of Larkspur," according to Corte Madera Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow Jr.

Another hitch was size. In a merger under the 1909 California law, the ordinances of the merging city with the larger population at the latest federal census go into effect.

Corte Madera was slightly smaller, and asked a delay until the 1960 census, which showed its population greater than Larkspur. Still, the Corte Madera Council would not agree to put the question on the ballot in Corte Madera. Approval by voters in both cities is required.

Lack of support by the citizen committee making the study cut enthusiasm for a grass roots drive to get 15 per cent of the town's voters signed up on a petition to force the election. The matter was allowed to die.

High School Students To Take Over City

San Rafael High School students will become "city officials" for one day on March 15 in the annual Student Government Day.

Elective posts in city government—except the board of education — will be filled by the student forum on March 12, announced Charles Fesler, high school dean of students. The forum consists of about 300 representatives of classes, organizations and unaffiliated students.

Candidates can either nominate themselves or be nominated from the floor during the student forum meeting, Fesler said. Each will be given an opportunity to speak, he reported.

Elective city officials are mayor, four city councilmen, clerk, treasurer, attorney and chief of police.

Major appointive officers will be appointed by the student elected mayor, Fesler said. These include city manager, public works director, engineer, parks and recreation director, planner, finance director and fire chief.

Student Government Day in San Rafael was originated by the San Rafael Kiwanis Club.

Three Burglary Suspects Nabbed At Stengel Home

GLENDALE (AP) — Three burglary suspects were in custody today after allegedly trying to break into the home of veteran baseball manager Casey Stengel, police reported.

Officers said they were called last night by Stengel's wife, Edna, after she heard noises at a rear door.

Arrested, police said, were Kent Whiteman Smith, 25, Stephen Check, 21, and Daniel Garrett, 21.

Officer Glenn Stanley said Smith, arrested as he crouched at the rear of Stengel's home, carried two screwdrivers and allegedly admitted trying to pry the back door open.

Stengel, manager of the New York Mets, is with the club at its spring training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla.

JOEL W. HEDGPETH
To leave Marin soon

Coastline Expert To Leave Marin

Dr. Joel W. Hedgpeth soon will be leaving the Marin County coastline that has been so much in his life since 1947.

He has been director of University of the Pacific's Pacific Marine Station at Dillon Beach since 1958, and before that was visiting professor at the coastal research center almost from the days of its postwar creation.

Dr. Hedgpeth will leave this summer to become resident director of Oregon State University's Marine Science Center in Newport, Ore. He will be succeeded at Dillon Beach by Dr. Edmund H. Smith, a marine biologist specializing in evolution and structure of mollusca.

Dr. Hedgpeth received his bachelor's degree from University of California in 1933. After depression-years jobs "counting bonds for the government" and doing salmon research in the American River, he earned his master's degree in 1940 and doctorate in 1951, also from U.C.

Before his seven-year directorship at Dillon Beach, he worked with the Texas Fish and Oyster Commission.

In addition to many technical scientific papers, Dr. Hedgpeth has written a layman's handbook on marine and tidelands life of San Francisco Bay and coastal waters which is popular with nature lovers and conservationists.

The new director at Dillon Beach, Dr. Smith, was graduated from Occidental College, received his master's degree from University of the Pacific and his doctorate at University of Glasgow, Scotland. He is now doing a research project on boring clams at the Marine Biological Laboratories, Woods Hole, Mass., and recently conducted research in Central and South America.

Dr. Gary J. Brusca, assistant professor of zoology at University of the Pacific, has been named assistant director of the marine station.

Dixie School Reading Program Is Approved

Dixie School District trustees last night approved a reading program designed to enable each youngster to proceed at his own rate.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said the program will increase library costs. It will start with the assumption that 300 books will be needed for a classroom of 30 pupils he said.

The board, opening discussions on a new teacher salary schedule, met with William Van Winkle, co-chairman of finance committee of the Dixie Teachers Assn.

Van Winkle reported that the committee recommended holding the line on the $5,000 starting salary, but increasing the top salary from $10,100 to $10,500.

He also asked the board to consider addition of a "professionaal step" for those who have reached the top of the schedule. Trustees suggested the finance committee give further study to the proposal.

The Dixie School District board also:

1. Authorized Willis to recruit a principal for the Dixie School, to be built in Upper Lucas Valley, and to start working with the district's architect on plans for additions to that school and to Miller Creek School.
2. Agreed to employ a second nurse for the district for the 1965-66 school year.
3. Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Marilen Moore, former fifth grade teacher at Santa Margarita School, who was on maternity leave.
4. Scheduled a closed session March 20 to review the recommendations for employment for the 1965-66 school year.

Foundation Forms For Novato Parks

An non-profit foundation to help finance parks and recreation for Novato was formed last night by volunteers meeting in the community house.

A temporary board of directors and a chairman were named to draw up incorporation papers and proposed by-laws.

Grant A. Morse of 1525 Buchanan Avenue, was named temporary chairman to work with attorney Edwin Grundstrom of 100 Old Ranch Road, in preparing the incorporation papers and by-laws.

Other members named to the temporary board were: M. E. Terry Lazzari, Mrs. Ethel M. Murphy, Mrs. Helen Scott, James Picchi John D. Kassenbrock, William J. Keener, and City Councilman Lucile Cannon. Keener and Kassenbrock are members of the Novato Parks and Recreation Commission.

The foundation will be called the Novato Community Foundation. It will encourage donation of land and money for Parks and for cultural and recreational uses.

Fred W. Binneweis, a member of the Novato Planning Commission, was the chairman of the meeting, which he planned with County Supervisor William Gnoss and Keener. About 45 persons attended.

Joel F. Gustafson of Mill Valley outlined ways to set up the foundation.

"Such a foundation can receive land as gifts and is exempt under the tax laws. It can buy and sell land and can sell performance bonds," he said.

Gustafson said he was one of the 18 members that formed the San Francisco Zoological Foundation that started with $20. He told how that organization handled many hundreds of thousands of dollars for the zoo.

Storms Hit Britain

LONDON (AP) — Snowstorms lashed Britain today and turned the land of rain and fog into an icebox. Villages were isolated. Train and automobile traffic crawled. International flights were delayed, some for hours. A finger of the blizzard also reached into France.

Youth Flees After Auto Speed Chase

Corte Madera police and highway patrolmen joined in a fruitless search for a driver following an 85-mile-an-hour chase up Corte Madera streets about 8:45 p.m. yesterday.

Highway Patrolman Richard Topham started the chase when he saw a sports car speeding up Alto Hill northbound.

Topham followed with his red light flashing. The auto turned off the highway and headed up Tamalpais Drive in Corte Madera at 85 miles an hour. It turned right at Willow Avenue, then left again on Oakdale Avenue, with the patrolman in pursuit. Then the driver, described as young, with dark pants and a white sweater, jumped from the car and ran.

A search through the evening failed to turn up the youth. Officers today learned the car, which had New York license plates, was reported stolen from Steven Walters, 121 Third Street, Sausalito.

Dillon Beach has one and one-half miles of clean, sandy beach and provides one of the safest ocean swimming beaches in Northern California.

TIBURON STUDY GROUP NAMED

211 Residents Appointed To Planning Advisory Committee; Chairman Announced

Two hundred and eleven persons have been appointed to the Tiburon Citizens Planning Advisory Committee, and most of the subcommittee chairmen were named today.

Chairman Thomas E. Drohan and vice chairman John G. McChesney worked for two weeks preparing the list of subcommittees and searching for subcommittee chairmen.

The group, charged with surveying the present condition of Tiburon and recommending goals, will be organized with four coordinators, each with subcommittees under him.

Land use coordinator will be George Butts. Subcommittee chairman reporting to him will be Donald O'Leary, commercial; Harold Wilde, industrial; Harold Hobbs, trafficways and transportation; Stanley Peterson, waterfront, and Philip S. Erlich Jr., residential subdivisions.

Public facilities coordinator will be Thomas Stanton. His subchairmen are William Carroll, schools; Chester Bowles, Jr., parks, recreation and open space, and Alton Lee, community facilities.

John Stanton will be governmental coordinator. His subchairmen are Kelly Wheeler, annexation policy; Bert Hirsch, ordinance review, and John Berryman, special districts.

Mrs. Nancy Wise will serve as experimental coordinator with subchairmen Rampton Harvey, community appearance, and Daniel Robinson, community character.

The group must begin preparing its report to the council by July 1. Coordinators and committee heads will meet at 8 p.m. next Thursday at Del Mar School auditorium. The full committee will meet at 8 p.m. March 18 in Reed School auditorium.

There were 273 letters mailed asking citizens to serve on the committee. Thirty-eight declined to serve, and 24 did not answer.

Police Training Fund To Hub City

San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani today turned over to the city clerk a check for $434 from the State Peace Officers' Training Fun.

The city qualified for the money by adhering to training standards for new men. During 1964 three new officers and one supervisor received training under the program.

Muir Beach To Hire Firm To Deepen Well

Muir Beach community services directors last night agreed to hire Keyt Drilling Co. of Cotati to deepen the district's well from 50 to 90 feet. The job is estimated to cost about $1,000, said board president Jack F. Harris.

Secretary-manager Charles S. Graham was directed to get bids on a new submerged pump for the well. He reported that a proposed second 50,000-gallon redwood water tank will cost $4,200 and the board asked him to try to buy a used one.

Miwok Corp. made a proposal said Harris, to exchange the district's access lane to the tank site for a more accessible lane. Graham was asked to investigate the new lane.

San Anselman Wins In College Runoff

John Ward of San Anselmo polled 115 votes in a runoff election to defeat Jerry Johnson of Lagunitas, with 88, for sophomore men's representative on the College of Marin student executive council.

Last week, in the primary election, Johnson missed clinching election by one vote when Ward's votes, plus those of write-in candidates, were counted against him.

GO-ANYWHERE VEHICLE

A new go-anywhere vehicle with the appropriate name of Trespasser navigates the most difficult terrain that engineers at the Ray Bown Automotive plant can find at Paccima, Los Angeles County. A combination of eight-wheel drive and ultra-wide, low-pressure Terra-Tires by Goodyear takes the vehicle into normally inaccessible areas, while a Volkswagen power plant and four-speed transaxle assembly supply power. San Anselmo Shopping Center Plans Runs Into Another Hitch

Developers who wish to build a shopping center on the site of the Sunny Hills Orphanage last night tangled with the San Anselmo School District board, and came out second best, as they did with the city council.

At the council meeting Feb. 23, the real estate firm of Grubb and Ellis, Oakland, presented a traffic report only to be told the wrong street had been studied.

Last night school district trustees told them even if they had studied the right street, from the council's point of view, it would still be the wrong street from the school district's view.

The question is access to the Red Hill School site, to be located behind the proposed parking center. The developers arrived at the meeting hoping the school would take its access from Sonoma Avenue, which passes Isabel Cook School.

Sonoma Avenue was the street the council wanted studied in the first place. Instead it received a report about widening Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

But the school board said the school would not use Sonoma Avenue. A new street along the south side of the shopping center to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard will be needed to the school site, thus cutting into the size of the shopping center, trustees said.

The board agreed informally to a swap of land to move the road over a bit to allow more shopping center space, after Alvin L. Swanson Jr. of Grubb and Ellis explained how the shopping center would be laid out.

Board members then reviewed educational specifications for the school with architects, and set a study session on the Red Hill School site for 8 p.m. March 23 at the Isabel Cook School.

Trustee Elmer A. Weden Jr. was absent.

Maugham Ailing

Families Head For Australia As Payoff For Barry's Loss

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Two men, their wives and six children were en route to Australia to live today because the men lost a bet that Barry Goldwater would be elected president.

"We sold our house, our car, our dog and almost everything we owned except our clothing and pots and pans," said Robert Ansett yesterday as he led his family aboard the P&O liner SS Iberia at San Pedro.

Peter Kemmsies said his family sold a dog, two cars and an airplane and still has its house on the auction block.

Ansett, a 31-year-old San Diego bakery driver-salesman, had bet his former boss, Frank Dell, that the Arizona senator would beat President Johnson for the White House job last November. Kemmsies, a San Diego subcontractor, had backed Ansett's bet.

Shortly after the election, Ansett paid off half his bet by pushing a golf ball a mile with his nose. The remainder of the wager was forfeited yesterday.

Ansett said he hopes to get work in the transportation or construction field in Australia.

Stolen Auto Found Wrecked

A demolished 1958 sports convertible was found 200 feet down a cliff a mile south of Stinson Beach yesterday.

The California Highway Patrol reported a passing motorist found the wreck about 5 p.m. below the Shoreline Highway.

The car was registered to Larry Henry of San Francisco, who reported it stolen Sunday. Officers said the car must have been pushed off the edge of the road.

NEGRO EFFORT HOLDS FEARS, SOMETIMES

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The wife of integrationist leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. says there are moments when she and her husband feel doubt and fear. But not for long.

"We're both human beings," Mrs. Coretta King, 37, told newsmen Wednesday.

"There are moments when you falter and become afraid. I am sure he (her husband) would be the first to admit moments of fear."

Mrs. King is visiting Los Angeles in the course of a brief West Coast concert and speaking tour. A soprano, she has sung in 25 U.S. cities and has appeared also in Europe, Africa and India.

Joins Marines

Wynn Boes, son of Mrs. Helen Boes of 1 La Vista Way, San Rafael, has enlisted in the Marine Corps and is in San Diego for 12 weeks of basic training.

Dr. King Plans Marathon March For Voters' Rights

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. plans to lead off a 50-mile mass march from Selma to the state Capitol at Montgomery Sunday to dramatize pleas for liberalization of Alabama's voting laws.

King, who delivered a funeral sermon yesterday for a Negro laborer shot to death during an outbreak of racial violence in Marion the night of Feb. 18, said the march definitely is scheduled to begin Sunday afternoon.

King said he plans to head the long procession at the outset but may leave the line after the march begins and return as it nears Montgomery.

The marching Negroes, who King hopes will number from 500 to 800, will seek to get the state voting laws liberalized while the Alabama Legislature is in special session. The session was called to consider Gov. George Wallace's education bills.

King, cutting short a visit to Washington, flew back to Alabama to pay a martyr's tribute to Jimmie Lee Jackson, 26, then left again for New York. The Negro integration leader and Nobel Peace Prize winner was scheduled to speak there today to the women's division of the United Jewish Appeal.

In a funeral sermon at Marion for Jackson, a Baptist deacon and leader in the right to vote battle in Perry County, King promised an unending campaign for racial equality in Alabama. "We are going to march through the streets until every Negro can vote," he vowed.

Partnerless Parents

Rec Commissioner Reports One-Time Offer To Resign

Mrs. Adele J. Alpers of San Rafael reported yesterday that she offered to resign from the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission when it developed there were two commissioners from the same supervisorial district.

She said she is still willing to resign "If it's a question of getting Jim back."

She was referring to James M. Fletcher of San Rafael, who was removed from the commission by supervisors in January.

The explanation at that time was that Fletcher, a former resident of San Anselmo, was appointed to represent the second District, but had moved out of that district. This, however, occurred some time ago. Mrs. Alpers and Fletcher served together on the commission while both were living in the First District(then the San Rafael District.

Mrs. Alpers explained that she was appointed by the late Supervisor Walter Castro to represent the First District. Fletcher, then living in San Anselmo, was appointed by Supervisor William D. Fusselman to represent the Second District.

Later Fletcher moved from San Anselmo to San Rafael. He was reappointed by Castro. That's when Mrs. Alpers offered her resignation, she related. It was not acted upon.

When Fletcher was dropped from the commission, Lothar Salin of San Rafael was appointed to succeed him. But meantime, redistricting had put both Fletcher's and Salin's homes in the Fourth Supervisorial District.

There is still no commissioner from the Second District.

Rec Group Holding Up On Budget For Land

Marin County parks and recreation commissioners left one big gap in their recommended 1965-66 budget yesterday: The allocation for land acquisition.

Commissioners, who are seeking a boost in land acquisition funds, agreed not to set a figure until after their joint workshop meeting with supervisors Monday night.

The only major capital improvement project in the preliminary budget is second stage development at Paradise Beach County Park on the Tiburon Peninsula, listed at $74,955.

The commission asked for a report from the recreation for the handicapped committee on the number of persons participating in the program. The $2,700 for this program which was included this year is not expected to be placed in the 1966 budget.

Commissioners noted that the first year's operation was a pilot program and it was expected that from now on communities would initiate their own recreation programs for the handicapped.

Recreation Director Kelvin J. Nelson, who became ill before the meeting, was absent.

Failures Develop Aboard Mariner 4

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Mars-bound Mariner 4 spacecraft is still headed toward its July 14 picture-taking date with the mysterious red planet, but it isn't communicating full data anymore.

Scientists disclosed yesterday that failures have developed in two instruments aboard the speeding craft. But engineers, compensating for a resistor malfunction, have been able to interpret what one of the instruments is sending back.

The elevation of Marin County ranges from sea level to 2,604 feet (atop West Peak, Mount Tamalpais).

Park Commissioners Feel Ordinance Needs Revisions

Marin County parks and recreation commissioners feel the time has come for revisions in the ordinance that created the commission.

Commissioners got ready yesterday to present their suggestions to county supervisors at a joint workshop meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center.

The supervisors have proposed adding two "at-large" commissioners, creating a seven-member commission.

"I feel with the workload, seven members is none too many," said chairman Gibbs H. Lawson. "I feel we can benefit and I'll personally recommend the change."

Lawson said other revisions to the ordinance are necessary and could be made at the same time.

Commissioners agreed the ordinance should be changed to permit them to initiate consultations with cities and community organizations on recreational expenditures, acquisition and development. Under the present ordinance, the commission can only act "on request."

Commissioners also stressed that their role should be established particularly in regard to recreational planning.

Commissioner Helen Newman said the commission should have a role in regard to recreational elements in all master plans in Marin.

Lawson said its role regarding the county master plan for parks, recreation and open space needed to be spelled out.

Mrs. Newman said there should be an allocation in the recreation budget for a planner.

Master's Degree

Thomas L. Murdock of 26 Beach Road, Belvedere, received his master's degree in nuclear engineering from Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., at the end of the first semester. He was among 409 graduate students who qualified for advanced degrees at mid-year.

Prison Camp Escapees Recaptured

Two San Quentin inmates who walked away from a ranch dormitory outside the prison walls Feb. 25 were captured in a summer cabin on the Noyo River in Mendocino County last night.

Two men, Larry James Lane and C. L. Clark, serving time for armed robbery, were asleep when Mendocino County sheriff's deputies walked in on them. One had a pistol under his pillow but made no try to use it, prison authorities reported.

The escapees were spotted yesterday by a watchman in a boys' camp in North Spur, about 15 miles west of Willets. North Spur is otherwise deserted at this time of year.

Mendocino County district attorney's office was to study whether to charge the men with burglary or return them directly to San Quentin.

Hospital To Expand

Patrol Seeks Information On Puzzling Fatal Crash

The California Highway Patrol today sought information that might provide an explanation of the auto crash on Highway 101 early last Saturday which claimed the life of San Rafael attorney William J. Larson.

Funeral for Larson will be at 8 p.m. today at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael.

His wife, Selma, remained in serious condition today in Marin General Hospital with injuries suffered in the crash.

What puzzled highway patrolmen was why the car smashed broadside into a concrete piller of the Lucky Drive pedestrian crossing at 1:30 a.m. Saturday. A rainstorm at the time seemed insufficient explanation.

Officers theorized a slow-moving car, possibly with its lights out, may have loomed up suddenly in the night, causing Larson to swerve abruptly.

Larson died in the hospital without recovering consciousness sufficiently to tell what happened. Neither has his wife been able to provide an explanation.

Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the highway patrol asked for help from anyone who saw anything on that stretch of Highway 101 early Saturday that might explain the mystery.

Larson, a native of Albert Lea, Minn., was graduated from University of California and its Hastings College of Law in San Francisco. He was a member of the Lawyers Club of San Francisco, the San Francisco Bar Assn., and the Patrons of Art and Music of the California Palace of the Legion of Honor.

He resided at 144 Valley View Avenue, San Rafael.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Jed Philip and Eric Jay Larson; a brother, James Winger of San Diego, and two sisters, Mrs. John Abrahamson and Mrs. Nedra Mahaney of Minnesota.

Burial will be at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Woman Injured

Mrs. Shirley Aguirre, 37, of 375 Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley, was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital, under treatment after an accident at 11:55 p.m. yesterday in which her car hit a drainage culvert at Camino Alto and Miller Avenue. She was treated for cuts on her chin, chest and both legs.

Strawberry Rec Directors Pleased With Park Plans

Directors of the Strawberry Recreation District last night were pleased with plans for a 1.2 acre park that would be developed and deeded to the district by Eichler Homes, Inc.

Plans for the park were presented by landscape architect Anthony Guzzardo. They show a grass area, picnic tables, tiny tot play area and climbing bars for older children.

The land is part of Eichler's Harbor Point Subdivision No. 2.

The board approved terms of a joint powers agreement for purchase of 11 acres of tidelands in Harbor Cove, allowing for three years for payments and calling for 3½ per cent interest on the unpaid balance. The district, Marin County and the City of Tiburon are sharing equally in the $57,500 cost, secretary Mrs. Patricia M. Gowen explained.

Directors accepted deed on the old brickyard property, deeded originally to the county by Eichler Homes for recreation and now by the county to the district.

Mrs. Gowen and C. G. Bush were named to the budget committee.

The average rainfall from November to May, Marin County's rainy season, is 36 inches.

List Works Lower In Heavy Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregularly lower in heavy trading today.

The list was mixed in early trading but gradually worked lower.

Low-priced issues were prominent in trading. Hupp was up nearly 2 points on special news before trading was halted temporarily in the stock.

Brunswick and AMF also were heavily traded low-priced stocks.

Blue chips faded as did many other issues which have shown strength in this year's market.

U.S. Smelting lost more than 3; Control Data 2; Du Pone more than 2, Kennecott almost 2.

Volume for the day was estimated at 7.4 million shares compared with 6.64 million Wednesday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Thiokol, up about a point, looked like the most - active stock for the third session.

Also active, Motorola gained 2 in further response to big demand for color television sets. Zenith rose more than a point.

Texas Gulf Sulphur was briskly traded and fractionally higher but KLM Airlines encountered some profit taking on its recent big rise and dipped fractionally in lively trading.

Pan American World Airways was another volume leader as it tacked on a substantial fraction.

The market wheelhorses were thoroughly mixed, with some losses widening as the session wore on. Du Pont, Kennecott and Baltimore & Ohio fell more than a point each; New York Central about a point.

A big feature was Hupp which delayed in opening due to an accumulation of buy orders following a report the compeny made a major technological breakthrough in coffee roasting and processing. It advanced 2⅝ to 7½ on a block of 112,000 shares, later trimming its gain slightly.

Western Union rose more than a point.

Prices were generally higher in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds continued a firmer trend.

Marin County's Business Grows A Third In Decade

Marin County listed 34.5 per cent more businesses last year than in 1954, according to Dun and Bradstreet.

Heaviest rate of commercial growth was shown by Novato, which 10 years ago listed 108 firms. The 1964 total was 234, a gain of 116.6 per cent. Corte Madera's 80 per cent growth was second highest—from 45 to 81 listings.

San Rafael showed the greatest numerical increase in listings—from 560 in 1954 to 779 last year, 39.1 per cent higher. Sausalito increased the number of its businesses 50 per cent—from 118 to 177.

Mill Valley showed an 8.3 per cent decrease from 239 listings to 219. San Anselmo dropped 8.9 per cent from 178 to 162 listings.

Point Reyes Station's listings remained the same—18.

Other increases shown were: Fairfax, 26.1 per cent from 65 to 82 listings; Kentfield, 22.2 per cent, 36 to 44 listings; Larkspur, 11.3 per cent—up from 53 to 59 listings.

Total business listings in 1964 for the county were 1,982—an increase of 508 over 1954.

Marin was third highest in the Bay Area in its commercial growth rate. First was Santa Clara County with 42.5 per cent; second San Mateo County with 36.3 per cent. Bay Area counties as a whole experienced a drop of .8 of one per cent in the 10-year period.

The 47 counties of Northern California as a whole showed a 2.7 per cent increase over the 10 years.

HOLD THAT BULLDOZER!

Corte Madera Town Council scheduled a formal groundbreaking ceremony for the town's $180,000 public safety building yesterday afternoon. But when they showed up to man the bulldozer, Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow manned the foundation forms—which were already in place. Fostmeier Construction Co., the contractor had wasted no time. At wheel of the backhoe is Mayor Edward W. Colthurst, with Councilmen Albert E. Kogler (left) and Charles F. Pendleton riding behind. Councilmen William W. Collier (left) and Norman R. Barnett stand beside 'dozer. Brandow has back to camera.

GOP Aide Named

WASHINGTON (UPI) — William C. Kelley of Cincinnati today was named chief administrative assistant to Republican National Chairman-elect Ray C. Bliss. Kelly will be in charge of office operations at GOP national headquarters.

Council Cool To Changing Cities Group

Larkspur city councilmen last night discussed at length the role county supervisors could or should play in the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen.

Robert D. Carrow, mayor of Novato, asked in a letter to the Larkspur council if the name of the organization should be changed to include Marin County.

The group has urged county supervisors to attend its meetings for some time. Larkspur councilmen interpreted last night's query as a suggestion that supervisors be given voting membership.

Councilmen Vaughn M. Marker and Earl J. O'Grady were strongly against the idea. Mayor Neil R. Brixon said the suggestion was "premature and embarrassing."

Finally the council agreed that the matter should be deleted from discussion at the Council of Mayors and Councilmen's next meeting March 31 in Novato, and not taken up unless the supervisors should ask to become members.

Auto Equipment, Parts Missing

Overnight thefts of auto parts and equipment valued at $259 were reported to San Rafael police Tuesday by Gem Auto Sales, 1530 Fourth Street, and Fred's Union Station, 96 Medway Road.

Two auto batteries and a wrench worth $170 were taken from Fred's Union Station by someone who broke an overhead window in a lubrication room to gain entry. An $85 fuel pump and a $14 air cleaner were taken from a car on the lot at Gem Auto Sales.

The Jan. 1, 1965 population estimate of Marin County is 185,703.

Larkspur Goes Slow On Animal Restrictions

Proposed revisions in the Larkspur zoning ordinance were sent back to the planning commission last night for further study because of dogs and cats and horses.

The Larkspur City Council declared the limit of two dogs and two cats to a residence in a single family residence was too restrictive.

"I don't believe in five men being dictatorial in telling the citizens of this city what they can or cannot do," Mayor Neil R. Brixon said. He said he had received several calls from residents with three dogs or more or three cats or more.

"They want to know if they are supposed to kill the third dog," Brixon said.

City Atty. Robert W. Elliott said people who already had more than two animals could keep them if the ordinance were passed.

Jack Fowler of 34 Laurel Avenue strongly protested the animal limitation. "I have four kids," he said jokingly.

"Oh," said Brixon with a smile, "I think that's taken care of on the next page."

Councilmen Vaughan M. Marker protested against permitting horses in other than residential zones. He did not think they would be appropriate in administrative and professional zones, for instance.

Horses would be allowed if an owner had an acre of land. He could keep two horses on an acre and one more horse for every acre in addition.

Councilmen asked the planning commission to study both the horse, dog and cat provisions, suggesting that the limit on dogs and cats should perhaps be raised from two to four of each. This, councilmen decided, would not include small kittens and puppies.

Sewer Line Study

Engineering studies for an enlarged sewer line near Ross Common for a new subdivision, to connect with the main line across the Corte Madera Creek on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, were ordered last night by directors of the Ross Valley Sanitary District.

BO SETS HIS SIGHTS

Bo Belinsky of the Philadelphia Phils draws a bead on his batter during a practice session yesterday at the Phils' camp in Clearwater, Fla. The controversial southpaw was acquired last December from the Los Angeles Angels in a trade for two other Phillies, Costen Shockley and Rudy May.

PAGAN OUR SHORTSTOP, SAYS FRANKS

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP)—The only expected fight for position at the San Francisco Giants spring training camp may never materialize.

"Jose Pagan is my shortstop," declared new Manager Herman Franks yesterday.

This means Jim Davenport, displaced last season at third by rookie slugger Jim Ray Hart, must remain a utility man.

"But, we have a little work to do with Jose," added Franks. "He still has that bad habit of creeping in toward the mound on every pitch, which restricts his range."

The creeping habit supposedly started after 1962, Pagan's best season and the year the Giants won the pennant. He batted .259 that year as compared to .223 in 1964, during which he discovered eye trouble that was hopefully corrected by surgery this winter.

Coach Cookie Lavagetto said he first noticed the habit "when I was with the Mets" in 1963.

"Pagan cost the Giants one game I remember well because of a ball that trapped him between steps," Lavagetto continued. "When I came over to the Giants last spring I mentioned this to Alvin Dark, who was an old shortstop and better qualified to correct Pagan."

Somehow the fault didn't correct and Pagan still is mystified why he started to play sneaky.

"I don't know," the Puerto Rican said. "But I'm going to stop doing it because it's no good."

In other spring developments in the biting Arizona wind, Matty Alou arrived and reportedly agreed to terms, leaving only two Giants out of camp. The outfielder from the Dominican Republic is expected to sign soon.

But reliever Bob Shaw remains with his oranges in Jupiter, Fla., contending he wants to be a starter if he must take a cut in pay. Giants General Manager Chub Feeney says Shaw and the club are still far apart.

Southpaw reliever Masanori Murakami has been placed on the disqualified list meaning he doesn't count against the 25-man roster. Also, it probably means the Giants have all but given up trying to lure Murakami from his Japanese homeland.

Machen-Terrell Winner Vs. Clay?

Cassius Is Interested In September Meeting

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Winner of the World Boxing Association-sanctioned heavyweight title bout between Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen tomorrow night may get a September match here with Cassius Clay, generally accepted heavyweight champion.

Sponsors of the 15-round Terrell-Machen scrap at the International Amphitheatre disclosed today that Clay spokesmen approached them concerning the September bout, possibly at Comiskey Park.

Irv Schoenwald, co-promoter of tomorrow night's fight, said that if Clay chose to fight Terrell or Machen, a better site would be McCormick Place, capable of seating 20,000.

"We could get closed circuit television coverage equal to any available elsewhere and it would be better holding the fight indoors for TV purposes," said Schoenwald.

Ben Bentley, veteran fight publicitor handling the Terrell-Machen bout, said Herbert Muhammad, son of Black Muslim head, Elijah Muhammad, and John Ali, secretary of the Negro sect to which Clay belongs as Muhammad Ali, expressed interest in a Chicago title defense against tomorrow night's winner.

"They asked if Schoenwald would be interested in promoting the match which Clay is considering because Chicago now is his hometown," said Bentley.

Clay reportedly now is in Miami, Fla., gearing for intensive preparation for his May 25 rematch with Sonny Liston in Boston.

It was because of Clay's agreement to a rematch with Liston that the WBA stripped Cassius of his title in the 48 states under its jurisdiction. New York and Massachusetts, plus the British Boxing Board, still regard Clay as reigning heavyweight champ.

Meanwhile, Terrell, 6-foot-6 Chicagoan rated No. 1 contender by the WBA, and third-ranked Machen, father of four from Redding, Calif., took it easy the day before their tangle for the WBA crown.

Schoenwald, co-promoting with another Chicagoan, Joe Kellman, said ticket orders were brisk and attendance might approach 10,000 in the 12,000 seat Amphitheatre. That would mean a gross gate of more than $60,000.

Machen, 32-year-old veteran of 10 pro seasons, is guaranteed $20,000 or 30 per cent of the receipts. His record is 47-5-2.

Terrell, 25, will get a straight 30 per cent of receipts. Terrell has a 36-4 record, including 12 straight victories.

Redwood Vs. Ranked Team In T Of C

Redwood High School's basketball team will meet highly ranked Fremont High of the Oakland Athletic League in the opening round of the Tournament of Champions to be held next week in Barkeley, it was announced today.

But it's Miramonte High of Orinda which is on Redwood's mind, for the Giants, champs of the Marin Athletic League, take on that team tonight in the opening round of the Gridley (Butte County) Invitational Tournament. That tourney continues tomorrow and Saturday, with El Camino of Sacramento, Ells of Richmond, and Oakland high schools sharing the favorite role.

Tonight's pairings for the 13th annual Gridley Invitational are: Oakland vs. Washington of Fremont, 5 p.m.; Redwood vs. Miramonte, 6:30 p.m.; Gridley vs. Montgomery of Santa Rosa, 8 p.m.; and Ells vs. El Camino, 9:30 p.m.

Redwood, the school from Larkspur, has the worst record of teams entered in the Tournament of Champions. The Giants, 15-10 on the season, will need a big upset in their opening TOC game to beat Fremont, a team that boasts a 20-2 record and which is rated No. 9 in the state. That game next Thursday will start at 6:30 p.m. in the spacious Harmon Gym on University of California's campus.

FIRST GAME

First game next Thursday in TOC action will be Hayward of the Hayward Athletic League vs. Clayton Valley of the Diablo Valley Athletic League, tip off scheduled for 4:30 p.m.

Then after the Redwood-Fremont game, Livermore (East Bay Athletic League) meets the winner of San Francisco's Academic Athletic Assn. at 7:30 p.m. The last game of the night will be between Richmond of the Alameda Athletic League and Vallejo of the North Bay League, 9 p.m. The touring will continue the following two days.

Richmond, featuring the high leaping star Tom Champion, is the second ranked prep team in the state with a 21-1 season record.

Snubbed Tam Star Is Most Valuable

Tamalpais High's Larry Gray, whose coach is burning mad because he wasn't named to either the first or second all-league basketball team, today has the title of most valuable player on his team.

Gray, a high scoring guard who led his team with a 13.8 average through Marin Athletic League play, was named the Indians' MVP at an awards banquet Tuesday night for the Tamalpais wrestling and basketball teams, sponsored by the Tam Boosters Assn.

Although left off the first or second teams of the Marin all-league delegation, Gray was given honorable mention. His coach, Eddie Chavez, was the lone varsity cage mentor not at the selection meeting. After the announcement of the all-league team, Chavez said:

"I sincerely believe they (the other coaches) were trying to teach me a lesson for missing the meetings by leaving Larry off the first team. Honorable mention is ridiculous. The fact that I didn't attend the meeting is irrelevant; it's my own business and not important."

George Corson, league commissioner, when asked by the Independent-Journal today for comment on yesterday's published story on Chavez' charges, said, "I have no comment at this time." He indicated that he may have a statement to make later.

Three other Tam varsity cagers were given honors at Tuesday's banquet. Pete Nelson was named most improved; Ron Pedersen was selected as most inspirational, and Brian Donnan was given the Stagg award.

LeRoy Barrow was named most improved Class B cager and Steve "Woodie" Woodward was named most inspirational. Junior varsity awards went to Russ Williams, most improved, and Paul Austin and Phil Abbott, Stagg Awards. Dave Dulebon was announced as most improved frosh cager and Ron Blasingame was given the freshman Stagg award.

Invitation To Candlestick Park; Will Dawn Lose Her Swim Suit?

Walter The Great Mails, the walking speakers bureau for the San Francisco Giants, called this morning from Phoenix, Ariz., where he is slaving away as "advance man" for the San Francisco club. His duties call for public speaking engagements at various civic groups to promote ticket sales when the Giants play their spring games in Phoenix starting next week.

I've described Mails as the only man who can place a long distance call without a telephone. Not that he's loud or anything of the sort. It's just that his voice carries. This morning I merely opened the window and cocked an ear. Luckily, the wind was with us. Walter saves more tolls that way.

"I just want to let you know that I'm here in Phoenix," said baseballs' answer to Sen. Claghorn from his room at the Adams Hotel. "And I'm enjoying reading the Independent-Journal. It's delivered here every day so I'm keeping abreast world, national and local events. I've been especially interested reading about all the junior baseball activities and signups in Marin County. Don't forget to tell your thousands and thousands and thousands of readers about our kids program at Candlestick Park. We're inviting all your junior baseball teams to be our guests on designated days throughout the season. Just have them contact me at Candlestick when I return there next month and we'll start arranging dates for them to come to the ball park — free of charge."

With that a bird blew by and chirped, "I'm sorry, but your three minutes are up." I hollared out the window, "G'bye, Walter." You should have seen the stares I got!

TODAY's CONTRIBUTION to the boss' "local angle" edict: Jack Marin of Duke was selected the All-Atlantic Coast basketball team.

AL GIDDINGS, the well-known Marin skin diver and underwater photog, is showing some of his prize-winning underwater movies and discussing skin diving at the Abercrombie & Fitch Sportsman's Carnival all this week in San Francisco.

HAVE YOU been following that Australian swimming mess? Dawn Fraser, the Olympic champion, vows to fight the 10-year suspension, claims amateur officials have slandered her name and threatens legal action. The headline writers could have fun with this one, like: "Australian Judge Tries Swimming Suit," "Miss Fraser Loses Swim Suit," or Dawn's Early Plight."

OVERHEARD COMMENT re: the Japan-U.S. hassle over the pitcher Masonari Murakami: "The Indian givers."

Aussies Challenge Penalty

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — A Sydney swimming club is taking the first official step to challenge the suspension of four Olympic girl swimmers by the Australian Swimming Union.

The Auburn Club, to which Nan Duncan and Linda McGill belong, decided to seek a review of the suspensions.

The club management committee instructed its secretary, Jack Turner, to write today to the New South Wales Amateur the six Australian state bodies Swimming Association, one of the six Australian state bodies whose delegates form the ASU.

Turner is asking that Auburn's motion for a review of the suspensions be brought before the next meeting of the state associations.

Miss McGill was expelled from the ASU for four years, Miss Duncan for three years, Olympic champion Dawn Fraser for 10 years and Marlene Dayman for three years, all on charges of misbehavior at the Tokyo Games.

KEY FACTOR

Turner said the severity of the sentences was the key factor in his club's move to have the expulsions reviewed.

"We do not argue the fact that the girls should have been penalized but the penalties appear very stiff," said Turner.

The girls were expelled after a weekend meeting in Hobart but no reasons were announced for the expulsions.

ASU President Dr. Donald Dowling, questioned by reporters, agreed that the four girls' marching in the Games' opening ceremony against instructions was one of the reasons.

Miss Fraser has admitted she did not wear the official swimsuit in the races. The official one was too tight, she said.

Ross, Kent Win Opening Games

Ross and Kent schools won their opening round games of the Redwood District elementary basketball tournament last night.

Ross downed Del Mar 30-27, although Del Mar's Curt Schafer scored 15 points for his team. Stock Spooner led Ross with 9 points.

Kent, behind the 13 points of Scott Murphy, defeated Hall School 43-32. Skip Corsini of Hall led the scoring for the game with 14 points.

Player Back On Tour; Arnie Scores An Ace

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Gary Player officially joined the 1965 pro golf tour today with the first round of the $65,000 Pensacola Open, and he thinks he may get his season off to a good start.

"Here it's not how hard you hit the ball but how well," Player said yesterday after touring the 6,142-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course in 69.

"The average greens today are being built too big," he said. "This is a good course."

The bantarn belter from South Africa, who has been vacationing at his home the past few months, is one of 52 top-flight pros teeing off in the 72-hole open.

Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, neither of whom has won a tournament this year, are favored to give defending champion Player the hardest fight.

Palmer sank a 140-yard hole-in-one on the 11th yesterday with a seven iron as he carded a 71 in the pro-am warmup, won by Frank Beard with a sizzling 65.

Miller Barber, who tied Palmer and Player in last year's Pensacola Open but lost in the playoff, was second with 66.

The course was playing nicely, and 35 of the 45 who turned in cards broke par, including four at 67, six at 68 and nine at 69.

Bobby Nichols was among those at 67, Billy Casper was at 69, and Ken Venturi joined Palmer in the 71s.

Mrs. McCarley Wins Tourney

Mrs. H. W. McCarley won the Chateau Award Tuesday at the Las Gallinas Women's Golf Club. Other winners were:

Koufax's Million Dollar Arm Passes Initial Test

Training Camp Roundup

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It took just 15 minutes for Sandy Koufax to forget six months of frustration.

The National League's all-time strikeout king and earned run average leader for the last three seasons, Koufax tested his million-dollar arm yesterday for the first time since he was sidelined with an elbow ailment last August.

The Los Angeles Dodger ace threw for 15 minutes, mixed curves with fast balls and reported that his arm felt fine.

"I was just getting loose when I got tired," said Koufax, who had a 19-5 record when he was sidelined last season. Ron Perranoski and Claude Osteen also took their first pitching turns of the spring in batting practice and looked impressive to Manager Walt Alston.

Frank Thomas, whose wrist injury contributed to the September collapse of the Philadelphia Phillies in the National League race, was another 1964 patient who looked exceptionally healthy in his 1965 spring debut. The big outfielder-infielder, whose long - range bat helped the Phillies build a seemingly insurmountable 6½ game lead, hit three drives over the left field fence at Clearwater, Fla., and announced that he is a candidate for the Phillies' regular first base job.

BIG LIFT

Inasmuch as the Phillies acquired slugger Dick Stuart from the Boston Red Sox during the winter, Thomas is more likely to wind up in the outfield. But his early show of power was a big lift for Manager Gene Mauch because a lack of right handed hitting long ball ability was one of the Phillies' chief weaknesses of 1964.

Elsewhere on the Grapefruit and Cactus circuits: The St. Louis Cardinals reported that regular second baseman Julian Javier hasn't joined the club because of visa troubles in the Dominican Republic ... Manager Billy Herman said he is pleased with the Boston Red Sox' physical condition ... pitcher Gary Bell agreed to a $20,000 contract with the Cleveland Indians.

The battle for the Chicago Cubs' regular second base job has been declared open among rookies Glenn Beckert, Paul Popovich, Ron Campbell and veteran Joe Amalfitano ... the San Francisco Giants placed Masanori Murakami, 20-year-old Japanese pitcher, on their disqualified list.

EXPECTS SIGNING

Baltimore Oriole President Lee MacPhail said he expects shortstop Luis Aparicio to sign shortly after his arrival at Miami, Fla. ... Manager Charlie Dressen, the eternal optimist, assured his Detroit Tigers that the "Yankees aren't invincible—in fact, they wouldn't have won the pennant last season if they didn't pick up Pedro Ramos in September ... Kansas City first baseman Jim Gentile tested his injured ankle for the first time and said it felt fine.

Manager Al Lopez said that Johnny Romano is the Chicago White Sox' first-string catcher—despite the fact there are seven other catchers in the Sox' Sarasota, Fla., camp ... President George Weiss of the New York Mets said he is still trying to make a deal for a veteran third baseman .

EX-MARINITE — Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher Vernon Law, who attended Fairfax Grammar School and Tamalpais High School in the 1940s before returning to his native Idaho, does pushups at spring training camp in Fort Myers, Fla. Law, former 20-game winner, is still trying a comeback after a sore arm reduced his effectiveness the past two seasons. (AP Wirephoto)

Flaherty's Boys Bat Zero For Three In S.F. Fights

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Manager Sid Flaherty's return to the San Francisco Bay Area was spoiled last night when three of his fighters from Great Falls, Mont. were stopped within the 10-round distance in a triple main event at Kezar Pavilion.

Silky Shelton, 156, of San Francisco was declared knockout winner in 2:09 of the seventh over Ken Carruthers, 157½, who never was floored, but took punches freely.

Rocky Montalvo, 158, of San Francisco was given a fourth round knockout in 2:28 when Al Strensrud, 150, ran out of gas after landing some good shots earlier. There were no knockdowns.

Don Hicks, 132, of San Francisco knocked down Charlie Gardipee, 134, in the third with a right to the jaw and then tagged him again when he arose. The fight was stopped with Hicks getting a knockout in 2:32.

In California, fights can be stopped and the winner awarded a knockout instead of a technical knockout.

Flaherty was the leading manager in the San Francisco area in the early 1950's when he handled middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson, heavyweight contender Eddie Machen end welterweight Denny Moyer.

'Boycott' Shocks Braves

PALM SPRINGS (AP)—Milwaukee Brave owner William C. Bartholomay shuddered noticeably yesterday when sportswriters reported rumors that had filtered to the West Coast about his traveling baseball club.

One writer asked Bartholomay, whose club will move on to Atlanta in 1966, if it was true fans may "boycott" the Braves in their final Milwaukee season.

"We don't like to use that word," Bartholomay answered.

"Frankly, there's been a noticeable pick - up in advance ticket sales since we announced our cooperative plan to put money in the coffers to get Milwaukee another club."

Under the plan, the Braves will give the city anywhere from 5 cents to $1 per ticket depending on the gate. Lowest figure under the drive, Bartholomay estimates, is $40,000.

"If we hit our average attendance, $700,000 will be contributed to the fund," the 36-year-old club owner stated, adding: "I think our club might be surprisingly good this season."

Bartholomay said the Braves drew some 1.6 million fans a year over the last 12 years, including four seasons in which his club came within a few games of taking the National League pennant.

Bartholomay is here visiting the desert training camp of the Los Angeles Angels.

U.S.-JAPAN QUARREL 'DEEPLY REGRETTABLE'

TOKYO (AP) — A leading Japanese Baseball Federation official said today it would be "deeply regrettable" if the Pittsburgh Pirates postpone their post-season trip to Japan because of a quarrel over pitcher Masanori Murakami.

Ko Ihara, secretary general of the Japanese Baseball Commission who is also an executive of the federation, said the dispute over whether Murakami plays with the San Francisco Giants or remains in Japan "has nothing to do" with the projected visit of the Pirates.

Ihara said he considers both the U.S. and Japanese baseball commissioners are handling the Murakami problem as strictly that of the Nankai Hawks, who brought the young hurler into professional baseball, and of the San Francisco Giants.

"We don't want any other baseball club, Japanese or American, to be involved in the case," Ihara said.

He made his comments on a statement by U.S. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick at Mesa, Ariz., that the Pirates will cancel their trip to Japan next fall if the Japanese Federation "does not fulfill its obligation in the Murakami case."

Frick says the Giants have proof they legally purchased Murakami's contract and that if he fails to report to them and is suspended "we expect the suspension to be recognized in Japan the same as it is in the United States."

He said he hoped that the issue could be settled not to seriously jeopardize future baseball ties between Japan and the United States.

Ihara said it would be unwise to suspend Murakami in Japan if he is suspended in the States.

A spokesman for the Yomiuri newspaper, which sponsors the trip by an American big league team to Japan, said it has not been in contact with Frick on the subject and had not specified which team would visit here, but had only expressed hope to invite a major league club late October to mid-November.

Clarke Now Owns 5 World Track Marks

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Ron Clarke, just back from the United States, sliced 14 seconds from the world 10-mile record at Mentone, near Melbourne, last night. The Australian now holds five world marks.

He had to drop back to a walk in the 31st lap to overcome a stitch but resumed running after rubbing his side vigorously for a few seconds.

Clarke set the pace for the 40 lap race. He finished in 47:12.8, breaking the world record of 47:26.8 set by Englishman Mal Batty last April 11.

Clarke also has the fastest times for three miles, six miles, 5,000 meters and 10,000 meters.

A Big Weekend Ahead for Marin Skiers, Including The Youngsters

Big weekend in the Sierra, with the annual Winter Carnival of the Bay Area Council of the Far West Ski Assn. On Saturday, festivities will begin at the Donner Ski Ranch at 7:30 p.m., when skiiers will have a torchlight parade down Signal Hill to escort Sno-Queen Joanne Davis to the lodge. Bay Area ski clubs will compete with original skits for the evening's program.

ON SUNDAY, team racers from the bay area clubs will compete in a giant slalom at Sugar Bowl. This will determine the club championship for 1965. Junior Bounous, head of Sugar Bowl Ski School, will set the course.

Teams will include five men and three women from each club, with the best times of the top three men and one woman totaled for a team score.

Individual medals will be awarded in each class for the top three times of the day. These are in addition to the handsome perpetual trophy for the top team. The trophy has been in contention for 18 years.

JUNIOR RACERS are being developed in the learn-to-ski program which has grown out of the bus trips arranged by Alan and Nancy Loeffler of Belvedere. Expert skiiers themselves, they organized Saturday ski trips with their own children as the nucleus. From Knox, 13, and Anne, 9, the group now fills a Greyhound bus, with a waiting list.

The children are from 9 to 16, and live mostly in the Reed and Del Mar School District. They board the bus at 4:30 a.m. Saturday at the Boardwalk, Tiburon, for the trip to Donner Ski Ranch, and return, tired and happy, about 7:30 p.m.

EVERYONE HAS lessons. Top class is the racers, with Betsy Gast, Knox Loeffler, John Mayer and Bob and Barbara Keller learning how to go through the slalom gates.

Redwood High School Ski Club will take a bus to Sugar Bowl this weekend, with 36 students aboard, according to club secretary Kate Royer. They will meet at the school grounds at 5 p.m. Friday and return Sunday night.

They plan to go to Heavenly Valley on March 20-21, and to Squaw Valley April 3 and 4. Myrna Reed, physical education teacher, is advisor to the club.

SKIIERS ARE STILL traveling to where the snow and scenery are different. Belvedere Ski Club members Dr. and Mrs. William Ferguson are at Vail, Colorado, for nine days, and BSC president Gary Gast checked out the slopes at Dodge Ridge this week.

Marin Ski Club members Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haberman and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Best are skiing at Aspen, Colorado, staying with Mrs. Betty Jane Harbour, former MSC member, who is now an instructor at Aspen Ski School. Mrs. Pat Kure and Bob Dixon also visited Betty earlier.

Frosh Cage Coach Has 5th Winner

Lyle Fisher, freshman basketball coach at Redwood High School has quite an enviable record.

He's been coaching the Giants frosh team for five years and has five "mythical championships." (Although the frosh league isn't an official Marin Athletic League, each of the schools play a double round robin schedule with the other schools.)

This year, when the Redwood youngsters rolled through the "league" season with a 10-2 record, it marked the fifth straight year for the title. Overall record for Redwood's frosh was 14 wins and 5 losses.

"It's the tallest team I've had," said Fisher, "and that helps quite a bit. We were almost always taller than our opponents."

Although the boys on the team are only 14, you would never know it by their height. Center Dave Detrick is 6-4, forward Tom Seidenberg is 6-3, and forward Barry Ott is an even six feet. Rounding out the starting five were guards Keith Valk (5-9) and Skip Schmidt (5-9).

Seidenberg and Detrick, with their height advantage, were the team's leading scorers and rebounders. Seidenberg scored a total of 147 points on the season and Detrick, younger (but taller) brother of varsity performer Don Detrick, scored 143.

Pro-Big 10 Agreement Is Reached

CHICAGO (AP) — Ground rules of a mutual agreement among the Big Ten and the National and American Football Leagues have been approved for cooperative relations between pro and collegiate football.

Guidelines for such understanding were endorsed yesterday at a meeting of commissioner Bill Reed of the Big Ten, with coaches, athletic directors and sports publicity directors.

Reed has been working with commissioners Pete Rozelle and Joe Foss of the NFL and AFL, respectively, and Jim Corbett of LSU, chairman of the pro-college relations committee of the NCAA.

Reed said, "We have a climate of mutual understanding and agreement which is progressve, conistructive and mutually beneficial."

"It has been a momentous thing to receive assurances from the several pro leagues that they recognize the collegiate concern in these relationships and respect the collegiate interests."

Issues came to a head in December, and were carried to the NCAA convention floor in January, because of premature signings by the pros of college players and acceptance of gratuities by college coaches for scouting reports and other information about prospective players.

The pro-Big Ten relationship session launched the annual winter meetings of the conference, which continue through Friday.

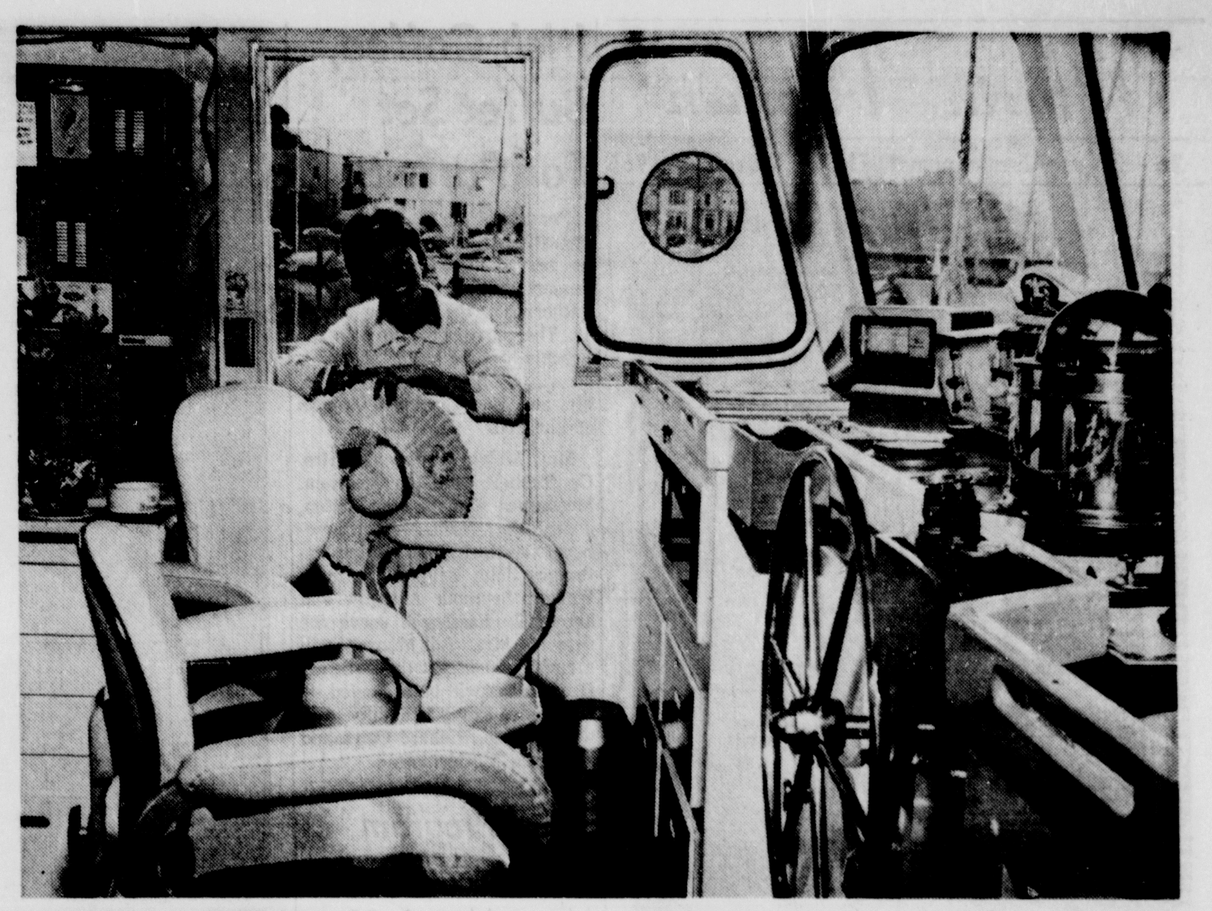
PEGGY POMEROY looks through the doorway of the master stateroom on the "Nereus," the yacht on which she and her husband traveled 41,000 miles around the world. An amateur archaeologist, she is proud of this mask she found at Mali, a West African country. The picture is by Claude Venard, a French "funambuliste." These are two of the original pieces of art that give the yacht a homelike atmosphere.



HOLDING A CARTWHEEL from St. Bartholomy, one of the hats in her world-wide collection, Peggy Pomeroy is seen through the door of the "Nereus" pilothouse, where with the aid of the latest electronic equipment her husband, Bill, worked as captain and navigator on their 20-month journey around the world. Occasionally Peggy, who also has a navigator's license, took a turn at the wheel. At left is a pot of fresh tulips, another of the homelike touches aboard the yacht.

'Nereus' Voyage Spells Adventure—

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

What is life like for a woman living most of 20 months on a yacht that sailed 41,000 miles around the world visiting 40 countries and more than 200 ports?

Peggy Pomeroy of Sausalito can tell you.

Furthermore, she has been living aboard the "Nereus" in the San Francisco Marina harbor since Christmas and will be there until she and her husband move to their Bolinas home this month. Their Sausalito home is leased to the New Zealand Consul General.

BILL AND PEGGY POMEROY — formally Mr. and Mrs. William A. Pomeroy — have lived in Sausalito since 1941 when they were married, and Bill lived there many years before. He is the owner and proprietor of the Pomeroy Galleries in San Francisco, for which both he and Peggy buy art all over the world, and has an international construction business.

On May 15, 1963, they sailed aboard the "Nereus" fully intending to be gone two years, but they returned four months early when they decided they wanted to spend last Christmas with their children.

Will, their younger son, was with them until last September when he entered the University of Colorado. Their daughter Pinkie, a graduate student at the University of California, was with them until they got to Singapore, and she and their older son, John a teacher of French and drama at the York School for Boys in Monterey, joined them for summer vacations.

ALSO STARTING the cruise with the Pomeroys were Bill's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. David N. Plant of Ross, Merrill Matzinger of Belvedere and Fred Woodhall of Ross, who served as engineer.

With the aid of the latest electronic equipment Bill guided the "Nereus" as captain and navigator for the entire voyage, though Peggy occasionally took a turn at the wheel, for she too has a navigator's license.

In Tokyo they added two Japanese sailors to the crew, and in Hong Kong they picked up their Chinese cook, Tang Tong, who stayed with them until they returned to San Francisco.

"Friends met us in various places, too," said Peggy, "so we had bits and pieces of home all the way."

THOUGH THERE WERE rough times aboard the "Nereus" — named for an encient Greek God of the sea pre-dating Poseidon or the Roman Neptune — the voyage was not exactly Spartan.

Eighty-five feet long and 21 feet wide, the "Nereus" is a ketch-rigged motor-sailer with a draw of 9 feet 6 inches. It has a living-dining salon and four double staterooms (sleeping 11) that are carpeted wall to wall and made homelike with paintings and art objects and containers filled with fresh flowers everywhere.

In addition there are showers with fresh water, a fully equipped galley, big deep freezer, electric washer and crew quarters.

OVER TEA CUPS Peggy described some of the high points of the voyage.

"Our worst experience was in the Bering Sea," she said. "I wouldn't even fly over it again! Although we were there at the best time of the year, we had nothing but storms that caused much damage. At one time the "Nereus" was filled with water with 25-foot seas lashed by 70-mile-an-hour gales breaking over her flying bridge. No wonder Adak, Alaska, is called 'the birthplace of the winds!'

"The United States Naval Station there — without which we could not have completed the trip — would give us weather information, and within five minutes it would change. We never saw the sun, moon or stars from June 14 to Sept. 7.

"We went to see the largest sealing rookeries in the world on the Pribiloff Islands, and we were actually the first yacht ever to cross the North Atlantic and Bering Sea. Yes, we did see the sealing operations, but at what a price!

"OUR BEST EXPERIENCE she went on, "was on the Island of Seychelles in the middle of the Indian Ocean a thousands miles from anywhere. It is a paradise — the way Tahiti was perhaps a hundred years ago.

"One of these islands in a group of 92 has two things found nowhere else in the world. In one of its valleys there are trees which bear sea cocoanuts — called coco de mer — that grow in pairs weighing 90 pounds. And in these same trees live the only black parrots on earth. Scientists still know nothing about them or their habits.

"We fell so much in love with the place," she said enthusiastically, "that after the month we stayed there we bought property. At the end of March or first of April when Will comes home, we shall return and begin building a vacation home, where we hope to spend about four months.

"It's half way around the world and too far to sail this time. We'll fly to Bombay and go the rest of the way by boat.

"ANOTHER INTERESTING experience," Peggy continued, "was going through the Gota Canal between Gotaburg and Stockholm. There was so little clearance on either side of the Nereus that we seemed to be sailing through the land. We literally climbed a mountain by way of 65 locks we ourselves manually operated.

"A thrilling adventure was exploring the sunken wreck of a 16th century Korean ship off the Island of Miako in the Ryukyus Islands south of Japan.

"We discovered while diving that it was an archeological gold mine filled with fascinating shards."

Peggy is an amateur archeologist who was interested in archeological finds in Egypt, Turkey, Greece, Central America, Canada and Alaska, as well as on this ship.

SHE CONTINUED, "another of our most interesting experiences was traveling up the Danube River with Russia on one side and Rumania on the other. We were the first American vessel of any description to go up the Danube in 35 years.

"We found Rumania a police state. This was well illustrated in a rather amusing incident. When a man happened to see the critical story about President Johnson pulling his dogs' ears in copies we had picked up in Istanbul of 'News Week' and 'Time,' he refused to believe anyone would dare to criticize the President. We were accused of having the magazines printed to prove freedom we didn't really have.

"However," she added, "by the time we left, that man was really asking questions about the United States. And when officials came to take inventories of all the books we had on board, several with our permission took some of them home to read.

"We found very much the same situation in Russia and Poland but not in Yugoslavia, which seems to enjoy more freedom."

A HIGH POINT AS far as boating was concerned, Peggy said, was in the Finnish Archipelago.

"This was the finest boating we encountered anywhere," she noted. "It is very similar to our Northwest and the San Juan Islands."

A GREAT SURPRISE in Russia were the friendliness of the people and their restoration of the Czars' palaces to their original splendor while they lived on practically nothing. Another surprise was learning that there are now seven Russian millionaires.

"Fortunately our son John speaks Russian, and we were invited into the homes of the people we met in the subways. They invited us to tea, even though they had to go out and borrow it for the occasion," she said. "Their new apartments may have hot and cold running water, but they are like cells.

"It was hard to believe these poor people themselves restored and refurnished in their original luxury the palaces of the Czars, many of which were burned to the ground. The art was saved during the war by sending it back of the Ural Mountains. These poor people have a great love of art."

All of these experiences were shared by Peggy and Bill, but she went on an African safari all alone.

Mrs. Perry Smith has worked on rummage sales, hotdog sales, seventh and eighth grade dances and been quite active on the P-TA executive board.

Mrs. Evelyn Battaglia is the faculty's expert in "new math." She has taken many summer refresher courses on the subject.

Laymen Needed On Board Of Medic Examiner Review

District review committees would be created to advise the State Board of Medical Examiners, under a bill (SB 400) introduced by Sen. Walter P. Stiern, D-Bakersfield.

In general, we are in favor of the bill.

However, it is unfortunate that all members of the district review committees are to be physicians or surgeons appointed by the governor.

We believe it would have been more in the public interest if some members of the committee were laymen, not directly connected with the medical profession.

Take the case of a Covina doctor who is now serving a prison term after being convicted with his paramour of murdering his wife.

The profession did nothing about having the man's license revoked. If it had not been for exposure in newspapers, the medical board examiner may have recommended no change in his status.

The conspiracy of silence in the profession is not always in the public interest.

Several lay board members on the district review committees would bring a more representative cross section of opinion to bear on matters that come up before the medical board of examiners and are turned over to the review committees for recommendation.

In any event, the final decision would still rest with the State Board of Medical Examiners.

Senator Stiern's bill would divide the state into five districts and create a district review committee within jurisdiction of the Board of Medical examiners for each district. Each committee would be composed of five members.

The committees would be required to hear all matters, including contested cases, assigned to it by the board and to prepare a proposed decision for the board.

In judging doctors charged with unprofessional or unethical conduct, there may be some reluctance on the part of other members of the profession to hand down a harsh decision against another member of the same profession.

The proposal to create medical review committees to advise the Board of Medical Examiners is a good thing.

But we believe Senator Stiern's bill would be strengthened materially if it provided for one or two lay members on the advisory committees.

FILING FOR OFFICE

Political Yearnings Blossom Out As San Rafael Election Looms

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

THE SEASON HAS arrived in San Rafael when people with political yearnings can do something about it.

In other words, it's filing time for city offices. The deadline for filing is March 12.

This is the time when persons who have been critical about something or other in the way their city or schools have been operated have a chance to tell the voters, "Elect me, and I can do it better."

IT IS AN OLD American custom that qualifications for office need not be considered. Anybody who can get sufficient signatures on nominating petitions can run. The filing fee is small.

Two men so far have entered the list for mayor, the job John F. McInnis will vacate in April after being elected to it four times.

One of these is City Councilman Charles W. Aby, who has served 14 years on the council. For the past six years he has been its vice president, serving as mayor in McInnis's absence. Certainly if experience qualifies one for an office, Aby is amply qualified.

PITTED AGAINST him is C. Paul Bettini, who has served 10 years on the San Rafael Board of Education.

School board duties are quite different from those of the city council, as Bettini will soon learn if he is elected. Public office of one kind, of course, helps considerably in fitting one for public office of another kind.

There is talk that Bettini has a very large campaign fund, with much of the money coming from outside San Rafael. So it may be an interesting race.

Three are definitely in the race so far for city council.

TWO OF THESE are incumbents—Louis H. (Bud) Baar, who has served six years on the council, and Harry A. Barbier, who was appointed to the council two years ago to fill out the term of David Menary Jr., who was elected city attorney.

The third is Irwin Taranto. His public office, of about two years' duration, has been an appointive one — on the city parks and recreation commission. He has been a regular attendant at city council meetings, however, and has presumably acquainted himself with city business.

There will be two vacancies on the board of education, as neither Bella H. Aaron nor John M. Bagshaw is seeking re-election.

AS THIS IS WRITTEN, only two candiates have appeared for these jobs: Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. and Walter R. Castro Jr.

Kramer is a member of the Dixie School District board, and has been quite critical of San Rafael schools. About his only contacts with the San Rafael Board of Education and its staff have been at joint meetings of the Dixie and San Rafael boards, principally to discuss unification — which Kramer has opposed.

Castro is prominent in the business community and in Masonic circles. He has a daughter attending a San Rafael school, so presumably he has the usual interest of a parent in how the schools operate. His first appearance at a board of education meeting in recent years, however, was three weeks ago.

KRAMER REPORTEDLY has solid support in the Dixie District. As it is part of the San Rafael High School District, he is eligible to serve on the San Rafael Board of Education — although that board also governs the San Rafael Elementary School District. (Unification would do away with the anomaly of a resident of one elementary school district spending taxpayers' money for another.)

Castro has backing from a group that has long been influential in San Rafael school affairs. His campaign chairman is Rex T. Silvernale, who served two terms on the board of education.

The appearance of only two candiates for two school board seats is in marked contrast to two years ago, when seven candidates—including Bettini, the only incumbent who then sought re-election—contended for three seats.

BETTINI STILL HAS two years to serve on the school board, if he is not elected mayor. If he wins the mayoralty, he must resign from the school board. Its experience would then rest with J. Walter Doll and Carl J. Brown, both of whom were first elected two years ago (although Doll had previous experience on the Dixie board).

Among the crop of candidates in 1963 were several who had been very active in committees for the San Rafael schools and had attended many school board meetings—Frank M. Parker, Mrs. Edith Tait, H. David Sokoloff. Neither of the two candidates so far this time has such a background.

Filings do not close until March 12.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Teener Helps; Officers Rude

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We were driving home from San Francisco when we had a flat tire near Corte Madera at 12:30 a.m. . . .

We hailed a passing police car . . . and a sheriff's car. . . . They left without offering to help.

While my father was walking to the gas station, a teenage boy driving a 1958 yellow Chevrolet stopped and offered his help. . . . He picked up my father, brought him back to the car to get the tire, back to the gas station and returned to the car, putting the tire on for us.

. . . We offered him money which he refused. Forgetting to ask his name, this is being written to let his parents know how proud they should be of this polite and helpful boy.

This is a switch—a teen-ager being praised while the sheriff and highway patrolman were very rude and of no help. Isn't one of the duties of law enforcement agencies to help people who are in trouble? . . .

Little Theater Group Wants An Audience

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Last night (Feb. 20), I took some guests to the current production of "Time of the Cuckoo" at the Barn in the Marin Art and Garden Center. The performance was very entertaining, and it was enjoyed very much by those who attended—all 35 of them (more or less). To those who worked many hours, and did so over a period of many weeks, this is somewhat discouraging.

This is true community theater, and the Ross Valley Players are one of the oldest little theater groups in the country. Those of us who participate . . . do this because of the satisfaction gained in doing our part in a joint effort to put on an entertaining show. One thing, however, we can not do! We need an audience, and when we do not have one, it becomes discouraging. . . .

Television gives us many fine shows, but for a change it is fun to see living, breathing actors and actresses who are doing their best to entertain us. When they do well, they are rewarded by your applause — not by looking at published ratings. We would be happy to have you there next week. Give us a try.

Foreign Aid Does No Good

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Johnson says we are not going to quit sending our men to die and our good American dollars to Viet Nam. One wonders if those we are helping know what they want? It seems to me nwe have been taking one step forward and two back. Sixty some years ago we fought Spain to free the Cubans and now we are getting paid back Castro joining forces with Russia against us with his missiles in our back door. . . . Several of our supposed to be friends are not paying their dues to the U.N. but if any proposal is made in favor of the U.S.A. it is vetoed . . . The countries we have given our money to burn our flags destroy our property and tell us to get out and go home damned yankees. . . . You can not buy love or friendship. . . . Our gold is gone and silver fast disappearing. If we had all the money we have given away the past 20 years we could build catch basins on every creek from Maine to Mexico and dams on all major rivers. Floods would be a thing of the past. . . .

Communism Termed Not A Philosophy

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Perhaps the Redwood Democrat Club would not have so many critics over their sponsorship of Albert J. (Mickey) Lima, Northern California chairman of the Communist Party, USA, at Redwood High School if they were astute enough to understand that communism is not a political philosophy as stated in their recent letter to your paper.

They appear to use this as a ruse to discredit the appearance of a spokesman for the John Birch Society, which is a pro-American organization. To provide a platform for all that is anti-American leads one to believe that they lack faith in our form of government. . . .

I wonder how many students really understand the semantics of Mr. Lima's talk? Each student and school library should study and make available copies of "Wordsmanship —Semantics as a Communist Weapon," from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. This publication is a study of the Committee of the Judiciary, U. S. Senate, for the subcommittee to investigate the administration on the Internal Security Act and other internal security laws.

Staff Rights Urged For Dr. Ascherman

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . The case of Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman. He has asked to be admitted, on a temporary basis, to the staff of Marin General Hospital and been refused.

I don't see where they have grounds for refusal. So far, nothing has been proven and why should four people have such a responsibility. Just because some doctors have had disagreements with him, why not give him a chance here? Are the doctors of Marin General afraid they might lose some of their patients?

If a person is outspoken and defends his belief, isn't it to his credit? One is better off physically as well as mentally by speaking his mind, instead of keeping it bottled up inside.

What are we, men or mice?

It is my sincere hope that Marin General Hospital directors will reconsider their statement made Thursday, Feb. 25, regarding the admitting of Dr. Ascherman to their staff.

It would do Marin good to have some fresh blood around. At least he is a devoted, conscientious doctor and that is more than I can say for three I know on the staff at present.

Good luck, Dr. Ascherman, truth always wins in the end, believe me, I know. Sometimes it takes a while, but it does.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Congress Needs A Mirror To Look At Own Faults

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson's success with Congress has a serious liability.

The president is making Congress look better than it is. This is endangering a crucially-needed congressional reform—a thorough overhaul of outdated machinery with which Congress transacts—and often fails to transact — the public business.

From 1949 to 1964—through the administrations of Presidents Harry Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy—Congress crept and crawled through one session after another, doing little things speedily and much of the time neglecting the big issues.

IT DID ONE thing boldly. It created the Hoover Commission to modernize the executive branch of the government.

It did another thing typically. It refused to take any step to modernize itself.

It is true that Congress put on a notable spurt of activity last year and that much, if not most, of Johnson's present legislative program is likely to fare well this year.

BUT DOES THIS mean that the need for congressional reform is removed because one especially skillful president is good at stimulating action on Capitol Hill?

There are two reasons why the answer is no.

Congress has a duty to itself to be able to do its job by itself no matter who is in the White House. Congress has lost a great deal of public confidence in recent years and it will not regain that confidence by being able to act only at the initiative and prodding of Lyndon Johnson.

FURTHER, THE non-legislative demands upon members of Congress are terribly out of hand. Senators spend more time confirming thousands of postmasters in every city, town and hamlet than they spend on many important bills. One senator had to review 600 applicants from his state for admission to the military academies. And few members of Congress have the staff to handle the mounting mail from their constituents — a two-way conversation that ought to be kept open.

Congressmen know that the machinery of Congress needs to be brought into the second half of the 20th Century.

SEN. MIKE Monroney, D-Okla., who was co-author of the La Follette-Monroney Reorganization Act of 1946, is sponsoring a resolution to set up a joint Senate-House committee to propose measures to modernize Congress.

Sen. Clifford Case, R-N. J., and Sen. Joseph Clark, D-Penn., are urging that Congress apply to itself the same approach it took toward the executive branch when it created the Hoover Commission. While the Monroney resolution would limit the study group of congressional reform to congressmen, the Case-Clark resolution would also call on experts from outside Congress and provide a broader scope of inquiry.

Actually Congress is only being asked to study reforms to help it do its job better.

IT NEEDS TO do so badly. Its workload is out of balance. Its committees do not have adequate staff; at many points the staff is misused by the majority party and the minority party is denied adequate staff. Congress is never in a position to take a total look at the budget. It examines revenues and appropriations in separate compartments and never looks at them jointly.

Congress has a high old time checking up on postal "snooping" but doesn't take time to consider the studies of its own agency, the General Accounting Office, into the wayward government spending.

You would think that Congress, so eager to reform everybody else, might take a little time to look into the mirror.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

U.S. Makes Deal For Viet Backing

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is paying a high price for the British Labor government's support of his policy of "controlled" air strikes against North Viet Nam.

In exchange for Prime Minister Harold Wilson's publicly voiced approval of retaliatory blows, the president has agreed not to interfere in any way, by military or other measures, with the large volume of British shipping to North Viet Nam.

A STRINGENT blockade of the North Viet Nam coast is strongly favored by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, with the vigorous backing of the Navy and Air Force.

British vessels are transporting a heavy volume of vital supplies to North Viet Nam. Foremost is oil from Indonesia—crucially essential for the Communists' trucks and other motor vehicles hauling Soviet arms and munitions from Hanoi, where they are carried by a single-track railway from Red China.

Intelligence estimates that 42 per cent of Western ships engaged in this North Vietnamese trade are British.

BETWEEN 30 and 40 Western freighters dock monthly at Haiphong, principal North Viet Nam port on the Gulf of Tonkin. Of them, from 10 to 15 are British. The others fly the flags of France, West Germany, Italy, Greece, Norway, Lebanon, Japan and Panama.

Of 202 Western vessels unloaded at North Viet Nam in the past six months, 82 were British.

Cargoes included everything from oil to spare parts for trains and engines.

UNDER THE president's backstage deal with Prime Minister Wilson, the U.S. is barred from any public strictures assailing Britain's highly lucrative trade with the Communist Vietnamese.

The U.S. has repeatedly denounced such trade with Soviet-satellite Cuba. But no official word of disapproval has yet been uttered about the North Viet Nam traffic.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff first proposed a so-called "limited" blockade of the North Viet Nam coast last November.

UNDER THIS PLAN, only ships carrying food and medical supplies would have been allowed entry.

All other cargoes would have been barred, particularly military and strategic.

No exceptions would have been permitted, regardless of the nationality of the vessels—Western, Soviet bloc, Red Chinese, etc.

IN EFFECT, THIS naval blockade would have been more drastic than the one imposed against Cuba during the historic missile crisis.

The joint chiefs' purpose was to shut off a principal North Vietnamese source of military and other essential supplies.

IT ATTRACTED no attention, but the House has quietly voted each member an extra $12,000 for clerical help. This was slipped through on a resolution offered by Democratic Floor Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma. Not a dissenting voice was raised.

Corte Madera Voters Facing A Pair Of Confusing Items

Voters in Corte Madera are going to be scratching their heads and pulling at their chins and wondering come April 20.

They will be faced with a pair of confusing items as they go to the polls. Their neighbors, from across the street, will have only one confusing item.

EVERYONE IN THE area will be asked to vote on unification. That's the first confusion. At first blush it seems simple. The question is whether all 11 school districts in the area of the Tamalpais Union High School District should be combined.

But what is confusing is that there are little riders attached to the vote, thanks to the wisdom of our legislators in Sacramento.

For instance, a "no" vote will not leave things the way they are. Instead, there will be a "tax equalization," whereby districts with a high assessed valuation per child will be taxed specially and the money turned over to poorer districts.

Then, even if the measure fails, as it did last June, this time the state will give a special bonus of $15 a child a year to those present districts whose voters did approve unification.

THANKFULLY, the voters will not have to pick trustees for the unified district this go-round. That is another mess all in itself.

Now, there is a special problem for the Corte Madera residents. At the same polling place, but on a separate ballot, to go into a separate ballot box, will be the recreation tax question.

Since the voting precincts are set up according to school district needs, and since the town boundaries do not coincide, not everyone going to a particular polling place will vote on the same issues. Two voter lists will be checked for each voter.

In one precinct, Corte Madera voters will vote on the town tax question at a polling place inside Larkspur.

ON THE RECREATION tax, the town fathers want to know whether residents will stand for having their town tax rate hiked by as much as six cents per $100 assessed valuation to continue support for the recreation program.

Unfortunately the ballot will say nothing about a recreation program. It almost said nothing about six cents. The ballot proposition will call for money for "recreation facilities." Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis has ruled that a "program" can be construed as a "facility."

How many voters will go through that mental contortion is unknown, but the question of leaving off mention of the six-cent limit could have been more serious.

THE RESIDENTS will be voting on a town ordinance in a referendum, and ordinarily only the title of the ordinance would go on the ballot. The six cents does not come up until the third paragraph.

Councilman Charles F. Pendleton Monday won a battle to have that paragraph included on the ballot, so that voters would not all have to come to the town hall to read the ordinance to find out what they were voting on.

Meanwhile, the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission is in a quandary about whether to wholeheartedly support the tax measure, because they still are not sure whether the money will be used for their program, thanks to the wierd wording.

They have received assurances from the councilmen that the money will be turned over to the joint recreation commission.

U.C. Revolution In Education Has Self-Decorated Heroes

SURVEYING OUR present scene, I find too many self-decorated heroes emoting all over the stage. In the old days such palpable hams would have been laughed at and given the hook. But we of the Great Society have mislaid our sense of humor and tend to regard what is sheer opera bouffe as tense drama: With the result that the pompous buffoons no longer get the hook but receive Oscars instead.

The serious consideration being given to the student revolt at the University of California is an excellent example. Until recently, no one would have dreamed of calling that institution authoritarian. The faculty is overwhelmingly liberal, and an undergrad informs me the students are free to express their opinions both in the campus publications and in their various organizations. There are areas, if I read correctly, where they may sound off to their heart's content and solicit funds for whatever cause, be it the truths of Karl Marx or the heresies of Barry Goldwater.

ALL THE UNIVERSITY has asked is that such political activity be barred from the places where it might interfere with the normal work of the administrators. Which is certainly no more a restriction of free speech than that the orators of Hyde Park are forbidden to mount their soapboxes in front of 10 Downing Street. Or that we don't allow parades on our freeways.

But apparently one highly sensitive student found the chafing of these bonds intolerable and made a Spartacus-like appeal to his fellow slaves to throw off their shackles. Roused by this recital of their wrongs, they decided to follow him and—if I may mix my historical metaphor—storm the Bastille.

THERE FOLLOWED seizure of the academic offices, a sit-in, chanting of great phrases—in short, a ruckus. When the profs found themselves unable to get to their posts the next morning, the cops were summoned. "Beat it!" said the law. "Never!" cried the rebels. So the cops put them into their wagons—"police brutality" is the phrase—and hustled them off to the hoosegow for disturbing the peace.

BUT THESE are momentous times and every picayune squabble becomes a cause celebre. The demonstrators were played up in the papers and TV and—surely to their own amazement — suddenly found themselves heroes. The faculty decided to get into the act—and I find this far more indefensible than the actions of the kids, since the profs presumably wear long pants—and by a vote of seven to one gave their blessing to the rioters.

Well, once they've pinned the D. S. C. on you, you must live up to it: And the boys are doing just that. The Donnybrook came just before exams, so they argued they hadn't had time to prepare. While Zola was saving Dreyfus, no one expected him to bone up on ancient history.

PERHAPS AT LONG last our underprivileged undergrads will get parity with the students of Latin America. In Bolivia, for example, they have equal representation with the profs; they are free to attend lectures or not and have the right to repeat a course until they pass the final examination. That's how come some of the students are in their 40s, since they attend no lectures whatsoever. But their seniority gives them power in the campus organizations—and accounts for many of their anti-American demonstrations.

If you'd like to pursue this subject—and what it could lead to — write the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402, for a copy of "Communist Infiltration in Latin-American Educational Systems," prepared by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary. Price 15 cents.

Don't Rebid Weak Suit After Partner's Denial

When an opponent opens the bidding, your overcall shows such a good suit that your partner can comfortably raise with outside strength if he has as few as three small cards of your suit.

If, instead, your partner bids a suit of his own, you should assume he is denying support for your suit.

Pass	2 ♣	Pass	2 ♠
All Pass

Opening lead — ♡ 8

East won the first heart and returned his singleton diamond to South's ace. South returned the jack of hearts, hoping to get useful discards.

THIRD HEART

East won and gave South his wish by returning a third heart. South discarded the jack of diamonds, and West ruffed. Now West returned a diamond, and East ruffed.

East led another heart, and South ruffed with the nine of spades. West discarded his low club, took the next club lead with the ace and returned the queen of diamonds to make South ruff.

While dummy fumed, South led a club, and West ruffed. It was not the best-played hand of the year, and South was down three.

PROPER PLAY

Proper play would have held the loss to two tricks, but this would have been no triumph.

South made his real mistake in the bidding rather than in the play. He should pass North at two clubs.

Clearly, North lacks spade support and also lacks the strength needed for an opening bid.

COMBINED HANDS

There cannot be a game in the combined hands, and South should pass at the first safe part-score contract.

If allowed to play at two clubs North would make his contract very comfortably, probably with an overtrick. If East or West made a further bid, he would go down. Any of these results would be better for South than going down three at two spades.

It isn't necessary to bid twice just because you have a five-card suit.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ 8 6 2
♥ 8 5
♦ Q 8 7 5 4 3
♣ A 5

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one notrump.

The hand is worth a response, but it is not strong enough for a response of two diamonds. If your long suit happened to be spades rather than diamonds, you would gladly show your long suit by bidding one spade. A response at the level of one does not promise as much strength as a response at the level of two.

THE NEW MATH

'Pump Theory' Helps Explain Some Ideas

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Want to get the answer to 2 plus 2 equals X? Well, get a pump and a tank and a camera. Let Katie Mueller tell you all about it in the following fourth of five articles on the "new math." At the age of 14 she's been dealing with the "new math" for three years.)

By KATIE MUELLER
(Fourth in a series)
Written for Associated Press

Mathematicians have taken pumps and tanks and cameras and projectors and put them together in the "pump theory" to help explain some of the new math.

They're not saying that a pump subtracted from a tank equals a projector. What they actually do with the pump theory is explain very simply why the products and quotients of Negative and Positive numbers are what they are.

Let's try to explain some of this confusion.

In my previous article I explained the "real numbers" with which the new math deals. That is, the concept that any number less than zero is a Negative number and any number greater than zero is a Positive number.

I said that Negative number multiplied by a Positive number always produces a Negative number, and a lot of other stuff. But, since the new math was developed to teach the "why" as well as the "how" of certain mathematical procedures, let's turn to the pump theory.

Suppose you had a pump that could pump water into and out of a tank. And suppose, too, that you could take a motion picture of the water level going up or down as the pump worked. And we'll assume that you have a film projector that runs the film both backward and forward.

Now, pump water into the tank, film the water level rising, and run the film forward through the projector. Naturally, on the screen you will see the water level rising — going in a Positive direction.

But let's say you run the film backward. On the screen you would see the water level going down — going in a Negative direction.

These two examples show us that:

1. A Positive number — water flowing into the tank — multiplied or divided by a Positive number, the film running forward through the projector, equals a Positive number. That's the picture on the screen showing the water level going up.

2. A Positive number — water flowing into the tank — multiplied or divided by a Negative number, which is the film running backward through the projector, equals a Negative number or the picture on the screen showing the water level going down.

If the film was made of water being pumped out of the tank, and the film was run forward through the projector, the screen would show the water level going down. But, if the same film were run backward through the projector, the screen would show the water level going up.

From this we can see that:

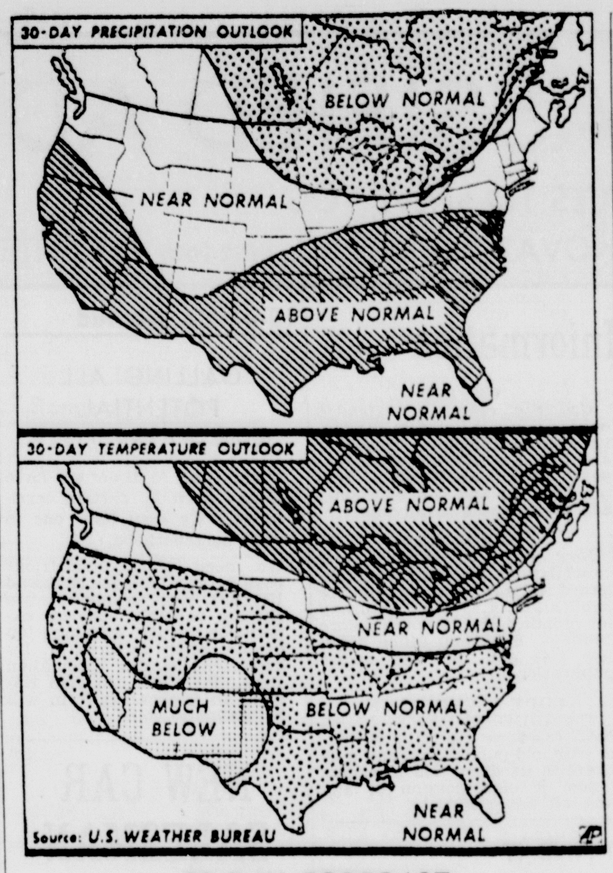
1. A Negative number multiplied or divided by a Positive number results in a Negative number. That is the same as No. 2 right above.

2. A Negative number multiplied or divided by a Negative number is a Positive number.

If you are confused, think what a job it must have been for those math professors who thought up all this wonderful stuff in the first place.

In the next article we'll see how 14 plus 14 equals 31. Meanwhile, I've got to get to work — the modern math, unfortunately, isn't yet modern enough to eliminate homework.

Next: 14 plus 14 equals 31



30-DAY FORECAST

The Bay Area will have above normal precipitation and below normal temperatures during the next 30 days, according to these charts. Information is based on forecasts supplied by the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Geronimo Gas Chances Improve

Jean A. Bevans, president of the San Geronimo Valley Assn., announced today that gas service for the valley might not be delayed until construction of the high school proposed by the Tamalpais High School District.

In the initial discussion during a meeting of residents, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. officials and representatives of the Public Utilities Commission Tuesday, the PG&E men said service would not come until the high school is built.

Later, however, during a luncheon meeting, the utility men said the high school might be removed "as a stumbling block," Bevans said.

Fire Extinguisher Theft Is Reported

Theft of a 2½-gallon fire extinguisher from Harbor Hill Apartments, Corinthian Court, Tiburon, was reported by sheriff's officers yesterday. A. C. Meyer, manager, told deputies it was taken during the past few days.

Fred Alvin Hill Jr., 185 Oak Drive, San Rafael, told deputies a 12-gauge shotgun was stolen from a fire-razed structure at the rear of his home, probably Monday.

Burglars Get $750 In Loot

Burglars who added vandalism to theft Tuesday looted a Tiburon home of about $750 in guns, jewelry, radios and other items.

Mrs. L. H. Peterson, 10 Seafirth Road, told sheriff's officers a back patio door was sprung between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. yesterday. The house was thoroughly ransacked, she said. Three pistols and a rifle, three radios, jewelry, a camera, wristwatch and a coin collection were taken. Then the thieves broke eggs on the kitchen floor.

Franky D. Ling, owner of Great Wall Chinese Restaurant, 117 Jacoby Street, San Rafael, told deputies someone forced the restaurant's rear door between 9 p.m. Monday and yesterday noon and took $150 cash and 13 dozen sets of silverware worth $130 from the office.

He said money bags in which the cash was kept were left on the office floor.

Chester Bowles Jr. 180 Hacienda Drive, Tiburon, told deputies his unlocked home was entered, also yesterday, and $58 in cash taken from bedrooms. The burglary was discovered by a son, Nathaniel, 13, about 5:30 p.m.

Lawrence Geiger, principal of Gallias School, Santa Venetia, told officers the school's home economics classroom was entered during the past weekend and two dozen eggs taken.

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?
Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Little Acorn

it may have been — but it surely grew into a mighty oak. One big enough to shelter the whole concrete patio of this hillside home. The living room has distant views of green hills and a Swedish fireplace for cool evenings — the kitchen is the informal family-type with plenty of room for feeding a group. Each of the bedrooms is large and the bath is really huge and fully tiled — even the separate shower stall. The patio and oak alone are worth the tiny price of $23,250 — so come see the house we are throwing into the bargain.

When a Family Buys A Home in Northern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of almost 5 to 1 MORE than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

TELEVISION REVIEW

'The King Family' May Not Make It

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The other day, a friend of mine received a phone call from a local factory-line cemetery asking him whether he would be interested in its family plan. My friend replied that actually he wouldn't mind but his teenage son and daughter don't like to do anything with the rest of the family.

As you can see, my friend is a man who keeps abreast of the times, so to speak. If, for instance, he had been in the ABC-TV research department, he would have issued warnings left and right about the new mid-season replacement series "The King Family," a musical hour each Saturday in which the teen-agers get along much too well with their parents and other relatives.

You may remember that after a one-hour special some time ago, the network received many favorable letters and decided to give the King family its own series, with about 30 attractive and musically inclined relatives of all ages taking part. Apparently it got off to a fairly good start in popularity, but now the tentative network schedules for next season do not list "The King Family," and although many viewers thought it a sure thing in the wholesomeness department, the ratings have fallen off and only a spectacular spurt or a high-level decision could bring it back.

What happened to this "sure thing?" Well, I do not own a computer, and I know nothing and couldn't care less about the public-reaction tests that are said to be given for some new series, and I never issued a book of statistical tables telling the obvious about television, and I don't know anyone in a network research department. But as surely as I know that Don Ameche invented Alice Faye, I will bet the reason is the same as the one that prompted my friend's reaction to the cemetery salesman. To show teen-agers subservient to, and yet friendly with, their elders is to alienate the vital teen-age audience.

I suggested this point, in fact, in reviewing the premiere of "The King Family" series in January. It is a mistake for a cold-blooded entrepreneur to appeal to the huge money-spending teen-age audience with friendliness and warmth if he wants the greatest return on his dollar. The environment has simply not prepared the teen-age audience for such an approach, and only a kindly network would fail to recognize this truth. The basic appeal must be to enmity, resentment and a trace of hatred against those who pay the bills. Such programs will help youngsters prepare for the world of tomorrow.

Memorial Set For Cab Driver

St. Louis announced he has set up a trust fund to assist in educating Patrick's son and daughter, Michael and Patricia. Donations to is may be sent to him care of Yellow Cab Co., P.O. Box 751, Ross.

Talk, Film Set On East Africa Birds

Monday Mrs. Elizabeth Terwilliger will lead a field trip to Burdell Mountain near Novato, participants to meet at Civic Center at 9 a.m.

WILLIAM R. SMART
His subject: pyeloplasties

Expert On Kidneys To Deliver Paper

A very small, but very troublesome area of the urinary tract will be the subject of a paper delivered by Dr. William R. Smart of San Rafael at a four-day sectional meeting of the American College of Surgeons in Seattle, Wash., starting next Monday.

Dr. Smart has become an authority on operations to remove obstructions in the area where urine passes from the kidney to the ureter. The area is frequently troubled by congenital strictures, aberrant blood vessels, bands of scar tissue and other difficulties which lead to obstruction of the flow from the kidney to the ureter. The ureter is the tube connecting the kidney with the bladder.

Symptoms from the obstructions often resemble the symptoms of gastro-intestinal diseases, making diagnosis difficult, Dr. Smart said.

There are seven or eight operations called pyeloplasties designed to relieve the obstructions. Since the defects which lead to the obstructions are often bilateral, affecting both kidneys, the patient's life is frequently in the balance.

In pyeloplasties, tissue is rearranged or moved to give a freer path to the urine from the kidney to the ureter. The ureter attaches to a small bladder-like organ called the pelvis of the kidney which in turn receives the urine from the kidney. The small area around the pelvis of the kidney (not to be confused with the pelvic bone) has a relatively high frequency of obstructions, Dr. Smart said.

Smart's paper is called "Experiences with Pyeloplasties: Pitfalls and Advice." He has performed 175 to 200 of the operations and lectures on pyeloplasties at University of California Medical Center in San Francisco.

Mexico's volcano, Paricutin, emerged from a level cornfield in 1943, reached a height of 1,500 feet and buried the town of Paricutin.
